THE AGED PASTOR.

He stands in the desk, that grave old man,
With an eye still bright, though his cheek is wan,
And his long white locks are backward rolled
From his noble brow of classic mould,
And his form, though bent by weight of years,
Somewhat of its primal beauty wears.

He opens the page of that sacred Word;
Not a whisper nor low nor loud is heard;
Even folly assumes a serious look
As he readeth the words of the Holy Book;
And the thoughtless and gay grow reverent there
As he opens his lips in fervent prayer.

He stands as the grave old prophet stood,
Proclaiming the truth of the living God;
Pouring reproof on the ears of men
Whose hearts are at ease in their folly and sin,
With a challenge of guilt still unforgiven
To the soul unfitted, unmet for heaven.

O, who can but honor that good old man,
As he neareth his threescore years and ten,
Who hath made it the work of his life to bless
Our world in its woe and wickedness,
Still guiding the few who were wont to stray
In paths of sin, to the narrow way!

With a kindly heart, through the lapsing years
He hath shared our joys, he hath wiped our tears,
He hath bound the wreath on the brow of the bride,
He hath stood by the couch when loved ones died,
Pointing the soul to a glorious heaven,
As the ties which bound it to earth were riven.

Methinks ye'll ween another day,
When the good old man shall have passed away,
When the last of his ebbing sands have run,
When his labors are o'er, and his work is done,
Who'll care for the flock and keep the fold,
When his pulse is still and his heart is cold?

Ye'll miss him then, every look and tone
So familiar now, forever gone,
Will thrill the heart with inward pain,
And ye'll long and listen for them in vain,
When a stranger form and stranger face
Shall stand in your honored pastor's place.

LANGLEY'S ANTIBILIOUS APERIENT PILLS.

The great popularity acquired by these Pills during the seven years they have been offered for sale in this Province is a convincing proof of their value, as no undue means of increasing their sale have been resorted to by pulling advertisements—no certificate published respecting them.

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, A MOST MARVELOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS AFTER 43 YEARS SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 79 Saint Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed.—Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your Advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment, and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless without seam or scar, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so great an alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature. (Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG OF 30 YEARS STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. Alder, Builder of Gas Ovens of Rushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31st, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I suffered for a period of 30 years from a bad leg the results of two or three different accidents at Gas Works, accompanied by several symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated, yet in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact. (Signed) WILLIAM ALDER.

The truth of this statement can be verified by W. P. England, Chemist, 13, Mark Lane, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH. Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penhurst, Kent, dated December 13th, 1850. To Professor Holloway.

DEAR SIR,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breasts for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends. (Signed) FREDERICK TURNER.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE.

Copy of a Letter from John Foster, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Helix, dated May 15th, 1850. To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of my leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newcastle Infirmary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment I determined to try them, and in less than a month I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the Hay Harvest and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint. (Signed) JOHN FOSTER.

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnot, of Breahouse, Latham Road, Edinburgh, dated April 25th, 1851. To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject from time to time, to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and blistered to a great extent still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago she saw, in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years. (Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—
