THE VENITE.

Pilonths in a world of gain.
While we suffer, still we reign.
Through a widerness of wee,
Ouward as our merches go,
OR may heave the inward sigh,
Sadly droops the sankan eye.
Hanting grief is a harrowing care
Circle round us everywhere,—
Yes in heaven we hear a King,
And beneath his banner sing,
Jubilate!

Lift we then our lyric song.
Rail and fervent, loud and long
Hailfeld fervent, loud and long
Hailfeld I Lord on high.
For the gotten victors.—
Music is a gift divine
Dedicate to Thee and Thine,
Organ-trump and raptured lyre
Let Thy glories now inspire?
Till our diapzeon blend
Far as earth and man extend.—
Jubilate!
Children of the Cross are we,
Shout we, hence, our jubiles:
Time may frown, and flesh may fear,
On descend the heart-drawn tear:
Ilones depart, and homes decay.
Sickness, anguish grief, and pain
Over bearths and households reign,
But the Church will eversing
Lands to her celestial King.—
Jubilate!

To Propessor Holloway,
Bir.—Gratitude coupels me to make known to you the extraordinary benefit an aged parent has derived from the use of your Pills. My mother was afflicted for upwards of four and twenty years with asthma and spitting of blood, it was quite agony to see her suffer and hear her cough. I have often doclared that I would give all I possessed to have cared her; but although I paid a large sum for medicine and advice, it was all to no purpose. About three menths ago. I thought pethaps your Pills might benefit her, at all events I resolved to give them a trial, which if did; the result was marveilous; by slow degrees my mother became better, and after persevering with your remodies for nine weeks, she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health, although seventy-five years old.
