BALAKLAVA.

Many a deed of faithful daring may obtain no record here, Wrought where none could see or note it, save the one Almighty Seer.

Many a deed while remembered, out of memory needs must fall. Covered, as the years roll onward, by oblivion's creeping pall

And there are which never never to oblivion can give room. Till in some earth's records perish all the thunder-peat of doom.

And of these through all the ages married to immortal fame. One is linked, and linked forever, Balaklava with thy name—

Our brothers that are sleeping, weary with your great day's strife, On that bleak Crimean headland, note prodigals of life—

Eyes which ne'er beheld you living, these have dearly mourned you dead, All your squandered wealth of valour, all the lavish blood ye shed.

And in our eyes tears are springing, but we bid them back again. None shall say, to see us weeping, that we hold your offering vain.

That for nothing, in our sentence, did that holocaust arise, With a battle-field for altar, and with you for sacrifice.

Not for naught; to more than warriors armed as you for mortal fray, Unto each that in life's battle waits his Captain's word ye say:—

What by duty's voice is bidden, there where duty's star may guide, Thither follow, that accomplish, whatsoever else betide."

This ye taught; and this your lesson solemnly in blood ye sealed: Heroes, martyrs, are the harvest Balaklava's heights shall yield.

—From Poems by Richard Chenevis Trench.

AN APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF THE NATIONAL SCHOOL.

THE National School was established in the year 1816, and has been in efficient operation since that period. It has afforded gratuitous instruction to Hundreds of the children of the Poor, both boys and girls, and there are many, now occupying honourable and useful stations in life, who have received their education in another School but this.

The ability and efficiency of the Teachers, in both departments, or have been present at the examinations held there. There are now in daily attendance, at the Boys' School seventy-four free scholars, and sixty paid scholars; in the Girls' school, thirty Free scholars, and forty paid scholars: total—Two hundred and four.

Children of all denominations are received into the School, and although its religious instruction is conformable to the principles and usages of the Church of England, these are not forced upon the pupils against the wishes of their Parents or Guardians.

The Salaries of the teachers, and all other expenses, have been defrayed by means of voluntary subscriptions, aided by a small allowance from the Provincial Funds, and from the tuition fees: which last item, however, forms but a small amount, as the fees vary from five shillings, to twenty five shillings per annum, according to the ability of the parents or guardians to pay, and also from the circumstance, that the majority of the Children, are Free scholars.

The Building, which was erected by private subscription and a donation from the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, has become in a very dilapidated state, and will soon be unfit for use: and unless some strenuous exertions are made to raise the necessary funds for its thorough repair, the School will have to be closed.

To avert this unhappy occurrence, an appeal is now made by the Provision Committee to the public at large, and the Parishioners of St. Paul's in particular, for pecuniary aid, on behalf of this useful and truly charitable Institution. An annual subscription of twenty shillings entitles the party giving it to nominate one Free scholar, and an additional Free scholar for every additional Twenty shillings subscribed. A large sum would be required to repair the Building, and the Committee intend to solicit donations and subscriptions—and also propose to hold a FAIR, about the 1st of August next, at Hillside, the property of the President of the Society, situated on the shores of the North West Arm, and trust that the Ladies, who are ever first in acts of charity and benevolence, will kindly lend their valuable aid and assistance, in forwarding the object they have in view. Thus supported the Committee feel confident the appeal now made will not be in vain; and that Educational Institution of so much importance raised, the gratuitous subscriptions of others, will not be allowed to fall through, from the apathy and indifference of the residents of the city, in the present day.
