To Travel East on

The Olympian

is to travel amid every convenience and luxury of the twentieth century. Unique in its conception and sumptuous in its appointments, "The Olympian" represents the very height of accomplishment in railroad equipment and service. Factors that appeal to the critical and discerning passenger are the distribution of "Olympian-grams," giving bulletins of the important events of the day, and the afternoon serving of tea in the lounge observation car—which occasion is presided over by one of the lady travelers. Other features are the scrupulous train cleanliness; made possible by the vacuum cleaning system; the advantage of long distance telephone connection at stations; the convenience of library, writing room, barber shop, bath room, clothes pressing, men's club room and buffet; and the comfort of berths that really are "longer, higher and wider" than on any other road.

Traveling becomes a pleasure on this palatial train as it speeds onward over "the shortest route to the East."
