CATHOLIC prayer-books at Hart & Mac Pherson's.

Even the corn is getting a hustle on it these days.

The month of July is consecrated to the Precious Blood.

Crops are reported as looking fine throughout the province.

The beautiful rain how nice it falls, It was just in time to help us all.

THREE generations are now awaiting for Queen Victoria's throne. The Prince of Wales was made a grand-father recently.

Solemn Requiem High Mass was sung in St. Mary's church on Thursday last for the repose of the soul of the late Archbishop Tache.

COXEY has called his infant son Legal Tender. Like many silly parents, he has imposed upon the youngster the life-long burden of explaining his name.

ARCHBISHOP DUHAMEL, of Ottawa, and Rev. Father Lefebvre, superior of the Oblates, Montreal, returned home on Wednesday evening last.

I long to leave the noisy crowd Of the city's dusty street, And hie me away to the mountain home Of the valley's calm retreat.

The special mid-summer number of The Catholic World Magazine appears in attractive summer garb and is full of entertaining light stories.

BISHOP LEFEBRE and Rev. Father Richot, of the Three Rivers Seminary, who had been attending the funeral of the late Archbishop Tache returned home Friday evening last.

It is said the young editor of the Hamilton Herald is crying out vigorously for an easier divorce court in Canada. What's in the wind? We hadn't heard of his joining the benedict fraternity. He should have been more careful and thoughtful of this thing before now.

The total daily average number of patients in the Winnipeg General hospital for the week ending Saturday, June 30, was 80, of which 53 were males and 22 females. Twenty-seven out patients were also treated during the week.

It is reported that one of the Catholic prelates who left the city on Wednesday evening last for the east, while endeavoring to board a moving train at Fort William, was thrown to the ground with such force, that he was stunned for several minutes; he also sustained several bruises and scratches.

An account of the blessing of the corner stone of a new church by His Lordship, Bishop Pascal, O. M. I. at St. Laurent, Lake Manitoba, which took place on Sunday last was received too late for publication this week, a full report of which will appear in our next issue.

Our Catholic schools have closed their doors for the summer vacation. Their graduates are living proofs that their course is as thorough, their methods as modern, their equipment as complete, and their teachers as adept as those of any similar institutions, public or private. Without seeking a comparison, they do not dread it.

This week we acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the May number of The Santa Clara, a monthly magazine of western literature, published by Carrie Stevens Walter, San Jose, California. The number in question is rich in literary thought and historic interest, and comes upon us like a May morning in the delightful valley. No California home should be without this admirably written and tastefully illustrated periodical.

It is said a novel way of lifting mortgages from churches is being tried in Brooklyn by Father Kilahy. There was a debt on his church amounting to $10,000. He selected eleven of his parishioners and had their lives insured for $10,000 each. The premiums were paid out of the church treasury. Whenever one of the insured died the amount of the policy was applied on the church debt. Thus far there has been cancelled $40,000 of the debt by reason of the death of four parishioners.

We learn from an exchange that the Most Rev. Father Soullier, of Paris, France, superior-general of the Order of Oblates of Mary Immaculate, spent a few days in Kamloops, B.C. He visited the houses of his order accompanied by Rev. Father Antoine, O. M. I., his assistant, and Rev. Father Lacombe, who has spent 45 years of his life among the Indians of Manitoba and the Northwest. They spent four days there, during which they visited the Indian mission, and the superior general had an opportunity to acquaint himself from actual observation with the work of the members of his order are doing for the Indians.

This is the American's glorious 4th.

A REGULAR meeting of Branch 163 C. M. B. A. was held last evening.

A SAMPLE of wheat from Glenboro, measuring two feet, is on exhibition at the Provincial Immigration office.

THE Rev. Sister Superior of St. Joseph's convent, Brandon, accompanied by three other Sisters from that institution, left last evening on a visit to England.

WHERE, and at what date do our various Catholic societies intend holding their annual pic-nic? We would suggest that it be held at Elm Park in the very near future.

FIVE thousand seven hundred and twenty-one persons passed the turnstiles into Fort Garry Park Dominion Day. It would be a great public convenience if extra ticket sellers were on hand during such rushes.

In the superior court at Montreal on Monday, Judge Jette, awarded Paul Sauvage, editor of La Patrie, $200 damages against Editor Tardine, of La Verite, Quebec, for having called him a "Methodist" during the late Canada Revue controversy.

MR. FRANK SMITH, son of Mr. D. Smith, who has been attending the Ottawa University returned home on Saturday to spend the vacation with his parents. Residing at the Dominion Capital appears to agree with Frank, as we notice he is looking remarkably well.

THE programme for the annual meeting of the Central Farmers' Institute, which convenes in Brandon on July 17, 18 and 19, has been published, and includes addresses on various agricultural subjects by Hon. T. Greenway, D. F. Wilson, J. G. Rutherford, M. P. P., E. A. Struthers, G. H. Greig, R. Waugh, S. A. Bedford, Ref. Prof. Bryce, H. Mac Kellar and Prof. Saunders.

WHAT might have been a serious accident occurred Dominion Day at the corner of Selkirk avenue and Main street North, when an electric car and trailer coming from the Exhibition park with a heavy load of passengers was derailed by an open switch. Fortunately nothing more serious than the passengers having to unload and right the car again occurred.

OFFICERS of the Exhibition association are exceedingly well pleased at the prospects for a most successful show this summer. Entries are now pouring in, and the staff of assistants in Secretary Strachan's office are kept pretty busy. Up to date the number of entries of exhibits are fully 50 per cent. in excess of previous years for the corresponding period, while in the speeding events the number of entries are 100 per cent. more numerous than in 1893.

The Sequence.

In a recent issue the REVIEW published the following:

Man wants but little here below, He is not hard to please;

But woman—bless her little heart!— Wants everything she sees.

To which a lady correspondent adds:

Man wants but little here below, And gets it if he can;

But woman asks for even less— She only wants the man.

The Late M. Hughes.

One of Winnipeg's Respected Citizen's Laid to Rest on Friday.

The funeral of the state M. Hughes took place on Friday from the family residence, in Garry street. A large procession moved to St. Mary's church, where services were conducted by the Rev. Father McCarthy. After the services the procession moved to St. Mary's cemetery, in Fort Rouge.

Tax body was laid in state at the cemetery, until the arrival of Mrs. Magg's, the only daughter of the deceased, who arrived late in the afternoon, from Cleveland, Ohio. The pall bearers were M. Conway, Patrick Shea, L. Gand, E. Bromley, T. C. Andrews, and J. Thompson.

The coffin was covered with a profusion of flower offerings, amongst which a cross from the C. M. B. A. and wreaths from T. McG. D. Jordan and J. Thompson were conspicuous, the latter in the form of a coffin and made up of roses and carnations, being unique.

The members of the C. M. B. A. attended in a body, the cortege also composed friends and neighbors of all ranks and denominations.

Feast of St. Peter and St. Paul.

Grand Musical Service at the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

Yesterday being one of the most important feasts of the year, that of St. Peter, and St. Paul, the services at the Church of the Immaculate Conception were unusually attractive. In the morning the choir sang Leonard's Grand mass, the principal part being taken by Mrs. Bernhart and Mrs. G. Germain, sopranos Mrs. F. W. Russel, alto; Mr. Lanctot, tenor; and Mr. Tomney, bass. The mass is a musical gem and was given in faultless manner. At vespers, the principal features were the "Laudate," and the "Magnificat." During benediction, Madam Rosa D'Erina sang an exquisite "Sancte Maria," and Professor Vontom a fine "O Salutaris," and with the assistance of the full choir, gave a magnificent "Tantum Ergo."

The church was crowded and many present, who were fingers, were surprised at the high standard of the singing. The choir again proved that it is of the most efficient musical organizations in the city, and capable of doing justice to the grand music and service of the Catholic Church.

Rosa D'Erina's Concerts.

The entertainments given in the city last week by the celebrated Prima Donna Rosa D'Erina, and her talented assistant Prof. Vontom were, from a financial point of view, not the success they deserved to be. On Thursday evening

We still have also all sizes in the regular $1.50 soft Makers Outing Shirts that we are running at $1.

ALL MEN.

Young, old or middle aged, who find themselves nervous, weak and exhausted, who are broken down from excess of overwork, resulting in many of the following symptoms: Mental depression, premature old age, loss of vitality, loss of memory, bad dreams, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, nervousness, lack of energy, pain in the kidneys, headaches, pimples on the face and body, itching or peculiar sensation about the scrotum, wasting of the organs, dizziness, specks before the eyes, twitchings of the muscles, eyelids and elsewhere, bashfulness, deposits in the urine, loss of will power, tenderness of the scapula and spine, weak and flabby muscles, desire to sleep, failure to be rested by sleep, constipation, dullness of hearing, loss of voice, desire for solitude, excitability of temper, sunken eyes, surrounded with LEADEN CIRCLES, greasy looking skin, etc., are all symptoms of nervous debility, that lead to insanity unless cured. The spring of vital force having lost its tension every function wanes in consequence. Those who through abuse committed in ignorance, may be permanently cured. Send your address and list of symptoms for book on diseases peculiar to man, sent sealed. Address M. V. LUBON, 24 Macdonnell Ave., Toronto, Ont., Canada.

they appeared at the Bijou Theatre before an audience which numbered less than a couple of hundred. The entertainment was called "Music of all Nations."

Madame D'Erina proved to those who heard her for the first time that she has a wonderful voice of great range and exceeding sweetness. Many in the audience had heard her years ago, and declared that her voice is as full and clear as ever. Professor Vontom possesses a clear flexible, tenor voice, which he used to the best advantage in numerous selections, besides which he gave several sketches of a refined and highly humorous nature. The entertainment was on the whole most enjoyable and it is a great pity, that a large number were not present to enjoy it.

On Friday evening the two performers gave an organ recital and sacred concert in St. Mary's church. The audience was again much smaller than the excellence of the entertainment deserved. Madame D'Erina's organ solos were perfection, and her grand voice was heard to even better advantage in the church than it had been in the hall. She was again ably assisted by Prof. Vontom.

We are afraid there can not be a very large balance to be devoted to the worthy object in aid of which these entertainments were given. We regret this, but at the same time must say that our thanks are due to those who secured the visit to the city of these two distinguished artists. Should they ever come again we believe we may safely say that greater financial success will be assured.
