FOR TEACHERS

A NEW

Educational Journal.

THE SCIENCE COMPANY of New York announce that they will publish, at an early date, the first number of

SCIENCE AND EDUCATION.

The aim of this paper is twofold. 1st. To give the teacher a paper that will interest him as an individual; and, 2nd, to give him the most reliable and valuable information obtainable regarding his profession.

The material for the first part will be such as has been originally secured for the weekly paper SCIENCE; that for the second part will be carefully selected, with special attention to the needs of educators.

SCIENCE AND EDUCATION will contain 13 numbers in each annual volume (appearing every fourth Friday during the year). To immediate subscribers for 1887, however, we will give free the two numbers appearing in November and December of this year. The subscription price will be $1.50 a year. Sample copies of the first (November) number will be sent free upon application. Address

The Magazine of American History

Is an illustrated historical monthly, founded in 1877, wherein the stirring incidents of the past are treated in a captivating as well as authentic manner. To the public libraries it has become an absolute necessity; colleges and schools in every part of the land are learning its value in the instruction and culture of their pupils.

It is one of the best of household journals, and it has the largest circulation of any magazine of its character in the world. It has grown remarkably prosperous during the past year, and is now prepared to extend its usefulness to every quarter of the country, and to foreign lands.

THE OPENING OF ITS SEVEN-TEENTH VOLUME

Is of the greatest public interest, as it contains in addition to other important material the first chapter of a series of papers to come during the current year on "The History of the Editors and Newspapers of America."

This Magazine holds the highest rank in the current literature of the time. The monthly numbers, gathered into handsome bound volumes, form a unique and valuable library in themselves of the history of the country.

WHAT IS SAID OF IT.

"THE MAGAZINE OF AMERICAN HISTORY is always a valuable journal; even the reader who cares little for the bare facts of history may read it with enjoyment. The January issue is of intense interest throughout."— Providence Journal.

"This periodical has a hold upon the past which lies between formal history and the events of the day. It is constantly gathering up the neglected facts of history, and giving them the shape in which they will ultimately find expression in the story of the growth of the nation. This magazine was never better edited than it is to-day; it so mediates between the past and the present that it is almost as fresh as if it treated of the issues of our own time."—Boston Herald.

"Few magazines would be missed so much as this elegantly contrived, excellently written one, dealing with topics that connect the new with the old."—Hartford Post.

"This splendid magazine is unsectarian and unsectional, including in its scope themes locally interesting to all parts of the country—north, south, east and west—and is truly a magazine of American history in its widest sense. The past and the present alike pass in review in its broad, fair pages."—The Morning Telegram, Mobile, Alabama.

Subscription price $5.00 a year in advance.

Talks With Socrates

ABOUT LIFE.

Translations from the Gorgias and the Republic of Plato.

1 Vol. 12mo. Cloth, $1; paper, 50 cts.

Prof. Goodwin writes:—"I have advised the translator to publish these versions of Plato in the belief that they will be welcomed by many to whom both Plato and Socrates have hitherto been merely venarated names, especially by those whose interest in knowing what Plato and Socrates really taught has been doubly checked by ignorance of Greek and by the formidable aspect of Plato's complete works, even in an English translation."

The translator of this little interesting volume is already known throughout the country for elegant pamphlet editions, issued with the Scribner's excellent taste, of some of the most picturesque of Plato's writings—translated into remarkable simple and idiomatic English, and with an accuracy which has been admired by leading Greek scholars.

They are little volumes which ought to be in the hands of all lovers of the best literature throughout the Union.—New York Times.

"A new song, 'They All Love Jack,' by Stephen Adams, won instant and unanimous favour. The words, instinct with life and jollity, are set to a melody that marches on with a swinging and irresistible rhythm. Since 'Nancy Lee,' by which the composer leapt into popularity, he has given us nothing so free and manly."—Daily
