

At all Times Ably Conducted.

THE WEEK, a well-known literary and political journal, which has at all times been ably conducted, gives evidence, in its latest issue, that it has been successful. THE WEEK is independent in politics, and its clever articles, which are usually patriotic in tone, will give to many of our politicians a view of themselves as others see them, even if they do not influence public opinion to any great extent as to the merits of questions in controversy between the parties. We commend THE WEEK to those who desire a high-class Canadian weekly journal. —Bellefleur Intelligencer.

An Indication of The "Week's" Success.

The enlargement is an indication of THE WEEK's success, a fact upon which the publisher is to be congratulated. THE WEEK is among the most welcome of our exchanges. —Ottawa Citizen.

Canada May Well be Proud.

THE WEEK has entered upon the sixth year of publication. It has been enlarged to the extent that readers will be supplied with one-half more matter than hitherto. THE WEEK is a publication of which Canada may well be proud. —London Free Press.

Uniform in Size with Harper's Weekly.

THE WEEK is now uniform in size with Harper's Weekly, and having outlived the dangerous period of infancy—so fatal to youthful journalistic enterprises—it may now look forward to a long, useful and prosperous career. —Sarnia Canadian.

An Able and High-class Journal.

It is an able and high-class journal. Its treatment of Canadian political questions is fearless and independent. THE WEEK should be read by every thoughtful Canadian, both young and old. —Winchester Press.

Certainly a First-class Journal.

This week we publish an extended notice of THE WEEK, a Toronto publication of much merit. It has recently been enlarged and much improved in other ways, and is certainly a first-class journal. —Chesley Enterprise.

Solid and Enterprising.

We are always glad to note signs of prosperity and progress on the part of the Canadian press, and it is therefore with pleasure that we draw attention to the fact that the last issue of that excellent literary journal, THE WEEK, came out in an enlarged form. It is really one of the most solid and yet entertaining exchanges we have. —Pembroke Standard.

A Valuable Addition.

THE WEEK, a Canadian journal of politics, literature, science and arts, published in Toronto, has entered on its sixth year of publication. It has been enlarged and improved in every respect. It is a valuable addition to the literary publications in any household. —Oakville Star.

Thoroughly Appreciated by the Public.

THE WEEK, Canada's leading literary journal, has entered on its sixth year. It is as thoroughly independent in politics as ever, as ably conducted, and judging from its evident prosperity, as thoroughly appreciated by the public. It has recently been enlarged and improved generally. —Milton Champion.

Must Secure it a Place in Every Home.

Its contents include independent opinions in politics, literature, science and arts; and original and able reviews on the most important passing events in the Dominion, the States and the old country, must secure it a place in every home in Canada. For general information of interest there is nothing in the city to surpass THE WEEK. —Ayr Recorder.

Always Fresh and Interesting.

That first class literary journal, THE WEEK, has now entered upon its sixth year, and appears in an enlarged and improved form. THE WEEK has amongst its contributors many of the best writers in Canadian literature, and is always fresh and interesting. —Stirling News-Argus.

New and Able Contributors.

THE WEEK has entered upon the sixth year of its existence, and has been enlarged and greatly improved. Many new and able writers have now or have promised to become contributors to its columns, which, with its regular staff, will give it a front place with journals dealing with politics, literature, science and arts. —Huron Signal.

Prof. Goldwin Smith Still a Contributor.

THE WEEK now stands in the front rank of literary journals on the continent. As heretofore, Professor Goldwin Smith occupies a place among its contributors. Those of our readers desiring to secure a first-class literary journal will find in THE WEEK what they desire. —St. Thomas Times.

One of the Largest, as Well as the Ablest.

THE WEEK, Canada's literary paper par excellence, has entered on its sixth year in an enlarged and improved form. THE WEEK is now one of the largest as well as one of the ablest literary journals on the continent. We commend the attention of thoughtful readers to the prospectus announcement for 1889, which appears in another column. —Listowel Standard.

Canada's Leading Literary Journal.

THE WEEK, Canada's leading literary journal, entered with its number for December 7th upon its sixth year of publication, enlarged so as to give its readers nearly one-half more reading matter each week than heretofore. Further improvements are foreshadowed in the future. —Educational Journal.

Cleverly Written.

Its editorial comments are independent in tone, cleverly written, and touch upon all current events of importance. —St. Thomas Evening Journal.

THE WEEK is a credit to Canadian journalism. —Stratford Times.

It deserves support. —London Advertiser.

The Price Has Not Been Increased.

The Toronto WEEK—Canada's foremost literary and critical weekly—has, on entering its sixth volume, been greatly enlarged and improved. The publisher, Mr. C. Blackett Robinson, is now able to give about a third more reading matter than formerly. The price has not been increased. THE WEEK is a real credit to the Dominion, and embraces among its staff of editors and contributors most of the best pens in Canada. THE WEEK's discussions of important topics are characterized by great liberality and freedom. —Quebec Chronicle.

A Tone of Dignified Good Sense.

THE WEEK, of Toronto, entered upon its sixth volume a fortnight since, and appeared in an enlarged form. THE WEEK is an enterprising and able paper, and always contains much valuable reading matter of current interest, while its editorials have a tone of dignified good sense, as well as of sound judgment. The paper is a great credit to its publisher, C. Blackett Robinson, who deserves to be congratulated. —Boston Journal.

THE COMPLETE POETICAL WORKS OF WILLIAM WORDSWORTH.

Copyright Edition. With an Introduction by JOHN MORLEY, and Portrait. 12mo, $1.75.

"The finest of all tributes to the memory of Wordsworth is a complete edition of his poetical works printed in one volume. . . . It runs to near a thousand pages, and is all that it need be in type and clearness of arrangement. . . . In a good binding it would do perfectly well for the library of a millionaire; in serviceable cloth it would make almost a library in itself for the student of humble means. It has a good bibliography of all the poet's writings, a catalogue of biographies, an index of first lines, and a complete list of the poems in the order of their production, year by year. Above all, it has an introduction from the pen of Mr. John Morley." —London Daily News.

"It is the only complete edition extant, for the larger part of the 'Recluse' is published in it for the first time, and even of the other poems it is the only edition which is at once correctly printed, manageable in size, and cheap in price. When we add that it is furnished with a satisfactory portrait, with an introduction by Mr. John Morley, with an adequate bibliography of former editions and of critical notices, and with an admirable double index, the reader will agree with us that it is the very best ideal of what a complete edition ought to be. It will undoubtedly become the scholar's Wordsworth." —Pall Mall Gazette.

THE AMERICAN COMMONWEALTH. By JAMES BRYCE, M.P., D.C.L., Regius Professor of Civil Law in the University of Oxford, author of the "Holy Roman Empire." Two vols., 12mo, $6.

"As we read his pages their suggestive and instructive value to Americans is so great and so patent that we find ourselves concluding that the book is written for us. No earnest and intelligent American can afford to remain ignorant of it. His education will be incomplete as a preparation for his duties as a citizen if he does not take advantage of the helps to a sound judgment and a nobler purpose which are here given." —Nation.

A Sequel to "A Little Pilgrim in the Unseen."

THE LAND OF DARKNESS, along with some further chapters in the experiences of the Little Pilgrim. By the author of "A Little Pilgrim in the Unseen." 12mo, $1.25.

"To those who have derived strength, consolation, enlightenment from the previous experiences of the 'Little Pilgrim' the speculative theology of this small volume will appeal with unquestionable force." —Glasgow Herald.

"We strongly recommend this thoughtful and beautiful allegory to our readers." —Banner.

A New Volume by Matthew Arnold.

ESSAYS IN CRITICISM. Second Series. By MATTHEW ARNOLD, D.C.L. With an Introductory Note by Lord Coleridge. Globe 8vo, $1.50.

"It is as a poet, as a master of a prose style, unmatched for beauty, delicacy, force and point, and finally as perhaps the greatest critic of a critical generation, that he has left a deep and lasting mark on our literature." —Nation.

A New Novel by Charlotte M. Yonge.

BEECHCROFT AT ROCKSTONE. By CHARLOTTE M. YONGE, author of "The Heir of Redclyffe," etc., etc. 12mo, $1.50.

History of English Literature. New volume.

A HISTORY OF EIGHTEENTH CENTURY LITERATURE (1660-1780). By EDMUND GOSSE, M.A., Clark Lecturer on English Literature at Trinity College, Cambridge. 12mo, Library edition, $1.75; students' edition, $1. Forming the third volume of a History of English Literature in four volumes, of which the second, covering the history of Elizabethan literature, by George Saintsbury, was recently published.

A New Novel by Archdeacon Farrar.

LIVES OF THE FATHERS. Sketches of Church History in Biography. By FREDERICK W. FARRAR, D.D., F.R.S. Two volumes 8vo, $5. Next week.

Sir Monier Williams on Buddhism.

The game was prolonged to the 63rd move when Black resigned.

NOTES.

- P x P appears to be the better move.
- Bad, as White can win the exchange.
- We should prefer 8. R x B, leading to a less involved position.
- Well played.
- Again well played.

At the last meeting of the Paris Academy of Science a method was described which will enable castaways to extract nutriment from the ocean. During the recent voyage of the vessel Hirondelle to the North Atlantic, trial was made of certain appliances which extract the small marine fauna from the water in quantities sufficient to maintain human life. These marine fauna exist in great abundance in the Atlantic, and probably in all warm and temperate marine waters.

QUITE AN HONOUR.—Father Louis, of St. Jerome's College, Berlin, has received word from Rome that His Holiness, the Pope, selected for his own use, from the thousands of Jubilee gifts sent him from all parts of the world, the magnificent office desk presented to him by St. Jerome's College. We might add that this desk was manufactured by Messrs. W. Stahlschmidt & Co., Preston, and was really a work of art, as all who saw it will bear witness to. His Holiness certainly evinced good taste in his selection.
