

efforts being made by the West to improve the freedom of movement for individuals between participating states. In the talks on Mutual and Balanced Force Reductions, which are under way in Vienna, we are actively contributing to the Western effort to reduce the confrontation of forces in Central Europe.

The search for ever more reliable and speedy communications led NATO to invest in the most modern means of transmission — the satellite.

NATO Photo