

EXCHANGE OF NOTES (February 21, 1966) BETWEEN CANADA AND THE UNITED NATIONS CONCERNING CERTAIN MATTERS RELATING TO CANADIAN PARTICIPATION IN THE UNITED NATIONS PEACE-KEEPING FORCE IN CYPRUS

I

The Secretary-General of the United Nations to the Permanent Representative of Canada to the United Nations

21 February 1966

SIR,

1. I have the honour to refer to the resolution adopted by the Security Council on 4 March 1964 (S/5575) by which it inter alia:

“Recommends the creation, with the consent of the Government of Cyprus, of a United Nations peace-keeping force in Cyprus. The composition and size of the force shall be established by the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Governments of Cyprus, Greece, Turkey and the United Kingdom. The commander of the force shall be appointed by the Secretary-General and report to him. The Secretary-General, who shall keep the Governments providing the force fully informed, shall report periodically to the Security Council on its operation;

“Recommends that the function of the force should be, in the interest of preserving international peace and security, to use its best efforts to prevent a recurrence of fighting and, as necessary, to contribute to the maintenance and restoration of law and order and a return to normal conditions;

“Recommends that the stationing of the force shall be for a period of three months, all costs pertaining to it being met, in a manner to be agreed upon by them, by the Governments providing the contingents and by the Government of Cyprus. The Secretary-General may also accept voluntary contributions for that purpose;”

Subsequent resolutions of the Security Council have extended the mandate of the force for successive three month periods.

2. Pursuant to the resolution of 4 March 1964 the United Nations Force in Cyprus was established operationally on 27 March 1964. By an exchange of letters dated 31 March 1964 an Agreement (S/5634) was concluded with the Republic of Cyprus concerning the Status of the Force. Regulations (ST/SGB/UNFICYP/1) for the Force have been issued on 25 April 1964. Copies of these documents are attached as Annex I<sup>1</sup> and Annex II<sup>2</sup> respectively.

3. I wish to express my appreciation to your Government for making available a contingent to serve with the United Nations Force in Cyprus. I should like to take this opportunity to bring to your attention the following considerations relating to the Force, and to propose the conclusion herewith of an agreement concerning the services of your national contingent with the Force.

4. The Regulations referred to above affirm the international character of the Force as a subsidiary organ of the United Nations and define the conditions
