

ARTICLE VI

Articles the growth, produce or manufacture of Canada or Honduras shall, after importation into the other country, be exempt from all internal taxes, fees, charges or exactions other or higher than those payable on like articles of any other foreign origin.

ARTICLE VII

- a) In the event that the Government of either country ceases to grant most-favoured-nation treatment to a third country through which merchandise proceeding from Canada to Honduras, or vice versa, moves in transit, or adopts any measure which even though it does not conflict with the terms of this Agreement, is considered by the Government of the other country as tending to nullify or impair any of its objects, the Government which has adopted such a measure shall consider such representations and proposals as the other Government may make and shall afford adequate opportunity for consultation with a view to reaching a mutually satisfactory agreement.
- b) The Government of each country shall accord friendly consideration to such representations as the other Government may make with respect to the operation of customs regulations, control of foreign exchange, quantitative restrictions or the administration thereof, the observance of customs formalities, the application of sanitary laws and regulations for the protection of human, animal or plant health or life, or any other matter related to the application of this Agreement. Each Government, when requested, shall afford adequate opportunity for consultation regarding such representations.
- c) If agreement is not reached after due consultation, as described above, either Government shall be at liberty to denounce this Agreement in whole or in part and the termination shall take effect upon the expiration of a period of three months reckoned from the day on which such denunciation is received by the other Government.

ARTICLE VIII

The present Commercial Modus Vivendi shall remain in effect for one year, and thereafter shall be automatically renewed so long as it is not denounced by one or the other Government. Such denunciation shall be subject to the expiration of a period of three months reckoned from the day on which the said denunciation is received by the other Government.

The present Agreement shall go into effect as soon as it is ratified by the Republic of Honduras and published in the Official Gazette.

I take this opportunity of expressing to Your Excellency the assurance of my highest and most distinguished consideration.

Senor Pedro Pinela Madrid,
Secretary for Economy and Finance,
Government of Honduras.

Harry A. Scott
Ambassador of Canada
