

May
Seventh
1923.

Brigadier-General C. J. Armstrong,
M. D. No. 4,
Montreal.

My dear General:-

In the Gazette this morning I noticed that the Last Post Fund ceremonies held annually at the cemeteries have been slated for May 27th, apparently the day on which the Montreal Garrison parades.

I have written to Mr. Hair saying that I hope something might be done to avoid the conflict, which I am sure would result in much disappointment to many people. Have you any suggestion to make?

Yours faithfully,