

FROM SIR CAMPBELL STUART.

Dear Sir Arthur.

Mr. Merle Davis presented your letter of introduction to me a short time ago.
I was first of all delighted to do anything for any friends of yours - and also as one of the guarantors in this country of the English mission to Honolulu I was naturally much interested. Leonid Curtis and I have spent many hours together over the future of the Royal Institute here - and I am much alive to the importance of
