It is a matter of much importance to the Farmer, that he should take time by the foretop during the season for making Hay. He must drive his business instead of being driven by it. Indolence or improper management in hay time, will soon give a sorry complexion to a farmer's affairs. A day or two lost, or misemployed while the sun shines, and your grass suffers for lack of the scythe and the rake, or your grain is going back into the ground, while the sickle is resting on a peg behind the door, and its owner is asleep or gone a journey, may be the means of introducing the Sheriff on your premises to take all that remains
