LONDON, June 26 .- Sir Edward

"It is the old offer, which is described as hypocritical sham, and which was only allowed and offered us because it was known we could not possibly accept it. Moreover, the bill demonstrates during all these months that no progress has been made by the government in framing details for the separate government of Ulster. It is somewhat ludicrous to provide that Ulster'is to accept any administration that the lord lieutenant, who will be subject to the advice of Dublin ministers, desires to set up. The whole thing shows in every line a policy of

GREEK NAVAL RESERVES ARE CALLED TO COLORS

ATHENS, Greece, June 26 .- Seven classes of the Greek naval reserve were called to the colors, the official explanaion of the mobilization being "the increase of the fleet and the naval anoeuvres to begin next week." The real reason of the step taken by the ministry of marine, however, is understood to be the determination of the Greek government to be prepared for all eventualities, altho there is an apparent slackening of the tension between Turkey and Greece.
