13. Duties of Council.

The council shall manage all the affairs of the society in the intervals of its meetings, and shall make arrangements for the meetings. It shall meet at the call of the president. Three members shall be a quorum.

The council shall report its proceedings at each meeting of the society for sanction.

The council shall have the custody and disposal of all moneys, collections and other property of the society, subject to sanction of its proceedings as above.

In the absence of the president and vice-president, the council may appoint a temporary chairman, and in the case of vacancy of the office of honorary secretary or treasurer may appoint a temporary secretary or treasurer to hold office till the next meeting of the society.

14. Duties of the Honorary Secretary.

The honorary secretary shall keep the minutes of the society and council, and shall conduct their correspondence, shall receive and attend to all nominations for members and officers of sections, shall keep the lists and records of the society, and, under advice of the president, shall attend to any business that may arise in the intervals of meetings. He may, with consent of the council, delegate any part of his duties to a paid assistant appointed by the council.

15. Duties of the Treasurer.

The treasurer shall have the custody of all moneys of the society, shall keep account of the same and submit these to the council at its meetings, and shall receive subscriptions, grants and donations, and make disbursements as shall be ordered by the council.

16. Addresses and Special Reports.

It shall be the duty of the president, or in event of his being unable to do so, of the vice-president, to prepare an address for each annual meeting.
