Layers 7 and 9 constitute the neuro-epithelium (Schwalbe), in which the optic nerve fibres terminate.

A connective tissue framework supports these layers, chiefly as the fibres of Müller, which arise from the internal limiting membrane, and pass through the whole thickness to the external membrane.

double g near ch pass

junc-

sition

ction,

sclera

nt it is

ting of

at the d into

eye in

n axisocesses

eneous

ls, with are also

ner than

hich are

ned line

cal, and sversely ner cone, l height. the rods l cells.