

minate, and I do not therefore share the gloomy anticipation of Prof. Dawson, that there will "ensue a period of decadence until it (the human race) becomes extinct," but believe that in Man as in the lower Animals, while the inferior and more synthetic types will be successively exterminated, the higher and more differentiated types will be continually expanding, and that the "meek shall inherit the Earth," and rejoice in the life that now is and the assurance of that which is to come, by faith in Him, who is the Way and the Life—the Son of Man and the Son of GOD.