Nothing that would aid in identification was found on the body.

INSPECTOR ARCHIBALD SAYS HE WAS MISQUOTED

His Statement Was That Only 32 Women Were Trying to Conduct Disorderly Houses.

"What I intended to say in speaking before the police chiefs at Ottawa and what I believe that I said," said Chief Inspector Archibald to The World yesterday, "is that from carefully compiled reports of inspectors of the ten police divisions of Toronto, there are no tolerated houses of ill-fame in the city and there are just 32 women attempting to run such houses.

"These reports will show," continued Inspector Archibald, "that in most of these houses there is the keeper and two inmates. Sometimes there is but one inmate; never more than the two.

"As to tolerated houses, what I mean is that as soon as the police have evidence against any house which, in their estimation, will be sufficient to secure a conviction before the police magistrate, that house is raided forthwith and the keeper and inmates, together with any frequenters there found, are brought into court.

"As to the number of women, street walkers and others, engaging in prostitution, either as a sole or partial means of making a livelihood, I have no evidence which would warrant my making even an approximate estimate of their numbers in the city."

"The Great Divide" At the Princess

Miss Adelaide Keim at the Princess last night was called upon for a speech and in thanking the audience for their great appreciation said that during the six weeks of their engagement, which terminates with the two performances to-day, they had been so well treated by the Toronto public that they hoped to come back in the near future and stay for a longer time. Should this really be so it would be welcome news for theatre-going citizens. Very few visiting companies present such thoroughly satisfactory interpretations. Last night, "The Great Divide," Henry Miller's drama, was put on and will be repeated to-day. The result was perhaps the greatest success for the two leading characters, and Miss Kathryn Keys had also a part better adapted for her bright manner than any other during the engagement. Miss Keim has shown a truly remarkable versatility in the ability with which she has taken the various characters in "The Lion and the Mouse," "When We Were Twenty-One," "Camille" and other plays. "The Great Divide" is a play of a sensational drama. The sensation in fact is confined to the first act, and is sufficiently vivid and natural. But there is a big psychological problem involved also, and the new theology finds expression in the heart-language of the western miner. The struggle of the young girl with the old man, the natural woman who worked out by Miss Keim with a range of emotional expression and a dignity which if it does not convince the heart, whips it against the man. The drama of a woman are beyond understanding, and the waywardness, the sullen pride, the revolt of the more delicate nature against "the man" in the first act night—the "drunken bear" were shown with fidelity and power, and the living fire that makes a stage picture alive. Arthur Byron in the part of the man in the first act played with fine nonchalance, and as the drama proceeded, developed the character of Stephen with excellent fidelity. In the second act of the last act when husband and wife strive for each other's self-respect and love Mr. Byron's splendid voice delivered the fine drama with more than a touch of the dramatic. Mr. Bob McClung and L. O. Hart as Lon Anderson, and Bert Williams furnished clever comedy in the second act, and the piece drew was well acted and well staged.

HARBOR COMMISSIONERS To Be Appointed by Board of Control Next Week.

"We intend to deal immediately with the question of the civic appointments to the harbor commission," said Mayor Geary yesterday. "Our representatives will be nominated next week and formal recommendation made to next meeting of the city council."

"Who are likely appointees?" asked The World.

"I am not in a position to state just now," replied Mayor Geary. "In fact, I am not sure that I know just what suitable men are available for nomination."

Next meeting of council is not likely to be called earlier than Monday, July 24.

The board of control has many important matters to take under consideration during the next week. Tenders for the new intake are to be in by the 15th, and these have to be opened and referred to the board of experts, after which the aldermen will get a chance of passing on them. Then there are the harbor commission appointments.

In addition to recommendations from

ITALIAN SHOOTING.

MONTREAL, July 14.—There was a mix-up among a gang of Italian laborers on St. Antoine-st. this afternoon, and as a result, Angelo Beigne of Louisiana, received a bullet wound in the right side just as he had completed the chastisement of a countryman, Pietro Venverte of Mount St. Marys-ave., is accused of the shooting. He will appear in court to-morrow.

"A Woman's Way" at the Royal

In his society comedy, "A Woman's Way," which will be presented at the Royal Alexandra Theatre next week by the Percy Havelock Co., Thomas Buchanan, the young author, has taken for his theme: Should a young wife allow another woman to monopolize her husband's attentions without a struggle to win him back, or should she fly to the divorce court for relief?

Howard Stanton has a charming, sensible wife, but he is inclined to swerve when a pretty face comes his way. In this case the pretty face is a Mrs. Blakemore, an exceedingly fascinating widow. The attraction is brought to a climax by Stanton and the widow being mixed up in an auto accident. Then there is some scandal. Mrs. Stanton's friends and relatives advise the divorce court. But Mrs. Stanton thinks he is worth keeping. She invites the widow to her house—introduces her to her own set. Then the game of women's wits begins: the young husband is the stake. The answer is—who wins?

In the portrayal of Marion Stanton, Miss Haswell has a part that only an actress of great ability can handle. No one could desire a more appealing and stronger part than Marion Stanton. It is a role peculiarly suited to Miss Haswell. Mr. Fred Tiden will play Howard Stanton. This is an excellent part for Mr. Tiden. Howard Stanton will all his weakness is very human. Miss Lois Howell, a new-comer, will play the pretty widow, Mrs. Blakemore. Miss Howell has brought from New York to play this part. She is a young woman of ability and is certain to receive a warm welcome. Mr. Allen Fosssett, Mr. Thomas V. Emory, Mr. Robert Smiley, Mr. William Crimmon, Miss Angela Ogden, Miss Caroline Harris, Miss Booth Chapin and Miss Catherine Robinson will also have parts.

The settings of this smart comedy will be up to the usual high standards.

SCARBORO'S NOVELTIES.

Three acts never before seen in Canada will make up the free vaudeville bill at Scarboro Beach next week. The Iolan Sisters are an Australian troupe of sharpshooters and tight wire experts. They are playing this week at the Fifth-avenue Theatre, New York, and of their act The New York Telegram says that their feats have never before been attempted in that city. They are a brand new sensation from the Antipodes, and it is expected that

MORE WATER FOR LAWNS

Hose May Now Be Used on Three Days of Each Week.

The board of health met yesterday afternoon to consider the water situation, and in view of the fact that there is some little improvement, decided to permit the use of lawn hose as regulated last week.

According to their amended order, householders east of the centre line of Spadina-ave. may use hose watering their lawns on Saturday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings, between the hours of 10 and 11. West of this line, on Sunday, Wednesday and Friday evenings at the same hour, each district thus getting one additional hour each week. This order, which takes effect this evening, will continue in force until the end of next week.

The slum problem will likely be dealt with at next meeting, when printed copies of the medical health officer's report will be in each member's hands, and the sub-committee—Ald. McCarthy and Ald. Graham—will be ready with some important recommendations on the subject.

WEAK MEN, HERE'S HELP FOR YOU

Take my Electric Belt for what it will do for you. Wear it when you sleep at night, or while you are resting after your work. You will find it a vitalizer, a tonic to your nerves, a rejuvenator of waning vitality. Use it for any ailment which drugs have failed to cure, and you will never cease praising it.

I claim that I can cure you weak men; that I can pump new life into your worn-out bodies; that I can cure your pains and aches, limber up your joints and make you feel as frisky and vigorous as ever you did in your life. That's claiming a good deal, but I have a good remedy, and know it well enough to take all the risk.

I Restore Men to Unimpaired Vitality, with Strong Body, Strong Mind, Strong Nerves, Strong Will.

Few men are really as strong and vigorous as they ought to be. Hard work or worry or the bustle of modern life is overtaxing the resources of many. Past indiscretions or excesses and other private diseases have undermined the constitutions of still others—few men are the men they ought to be.

This is why the wealth of the world is concentrated in the hands of the few. Except in cases of inherited wealth, the successful men, are healthy men—men with strong body, strong nerves, strong will, strong mind. They are the men who have carefully observed the laws of nature and guarded their strength and health.

Mr. James J. Gannon, Whitney, Ont., says:—"I would have written sooner, but was waiting to see what the Belt would do. I have got good results from it for my general weakness, as I feel stronger and can rest better at night. I have not been bothered with my back since I commenced the use of the Belt. I have never regretted getting the Belt, I assure you, and I will recommend your treatment to my friends and other sufferers."

If you have no confidence in electricity let me treat you at my risk. I will give you the Belt on trial, without one cent of risk to yourself. Give me reasonable security and I will take your case, and you can
