OPENING OF PARLIA ROOM "IN SHADOW OF GREAT LOSS"

Flag at Half-Mast and House Hung With Crepe--Speech From Throne Promises Votes for Women and Validation of Prohibition Measures.

Ottawa, Feb. 20.-Parliament opened today, "in the shadow of a great loss," Over the building, the flag was flying at half mast, the corridors and galleries of the house were hung with crepe. On Sir Wilfrid's desk, there were as Sir Thomas White expressed it, "the floral tokens of affection," The usual social character of the opening ceremony was lacking. No invitations have been issued. The gathering in the senate chamber when the governor-general read the speech from the throne, was confined practically to members of the two houses. In the commons, Dr. Beland took his seat for the first time after four years' sonment in Germany,
