

ESTABLISHED 1831.
JOHN CATTO & SON

Store Closes Daily at 5.30 p.m.
Saturdays during the Summer months at 1 p.m.

Midsummer Sale

Ladies' Outing Coats.
Grey and Fawn Checks and Fancy Prints, light weights, all new goods, 3/4 lengths, were $10.00 to $20.00.

Now $6 to $10

Ladies' Fawn Coat Coats.
Well tailored, silk lined, this season's new stock, regularly $15.00 to $20.00.

Now $10 Each

Linen Damask Table Cloths, 2 x 2 1/2, at (Special) 2.50 Each.
Cotton Sheeting and Pillow Cases, bought before the advance, to be cleared at 15 per cent. below current market rates.

Fancy Linens.
Centre Pieces, Tray Cloths, Tea Cloths, special at $1.00 each.

White Muslin Shirt Waists.
Specials at $1.00 and $1.50 each.

Ladies' H.S. Initialed Linen Handkerchiefs at $1.25 Doz.

Ladies' Unlaundered, Hemstitched, Sheer embroidered linens, every letter in the alphabet except "N", "D", and "P", presented. If laundered these would be $2.50 value. As they were sent unlaun-dered, they go at $1.25 dozen.

French Printed Lawns.
Balance of stock, comprising 20c, 25c, 30c and 35c qualities.

Now Clearing at 15c
Mail Orders Promptly Filled

JOHN CATTO & SON

King-street-Opposite Post-Office, TORONTO.

STATE TO FIGHT

Continued From Page 1.

amounting to as much as $20,000 a month.

It was decided to continue the fall excursions in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio on the same plan on which they have been run for many years.

Mr. Underwood objected to a statement published that a universal tour would be conducted by the Erie.

Expressions of opinion on the subject were sought at the meeting. Invitations to participate in such a conference had been sent out by Mr. Underwood.

So important was the issue considered by the Erie's president that he sought to bring into the conference railroad officers below the rank of senior vice-president. All the eastern roads were invited to participate.

After the discussion of yesterday it was decided to carry on the conference by correspondence and otherwise until the time was ripe for definite action.

It is likely the campaign, with Mr. Underwood in charge, will consume two or three weeks or perhaps more before another personal conference is held.

Among railroad men the agitation for a universal tour-cent fare has aroused much interest and some ill-will.

It was predicted that the consequences of the movement might be the changing of the eastern railroad map, or at least a change of the personnel of at least one road's list of officers.

In Wall-street the movement is being watched, and the final result will be looked for with considerable interest.

It was freely admitted that such agitation was in progress and that the Pennsylvania's opposition to the plan is based on the plea that a universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality, as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

Others in the C.P.R. ranks, however,
said the Pennsylvania's opposition to the
plan is based on the plea that a
universal tour would be a costly one
as far as that road is concerned.

The New York Central's position in
the meeting was one of neutrality,
as much interest and some ill-will.

THE WEATHER

Metropolitan Office, Toronto, July 25.
8 p.m.—A disturbance of considerable energy is moving eastward across the great lakes. The weather to-day has been fine and warm in the western provinces, and in Ontario and Quebec, while in the Maritime Provinces it has been cool and showery.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Kamloops, 64-80; Calgary, 46-73; Regina, 52-74; Winnipeg, 52-70; Sault Ste. Marie, 48-72; Toronto, 52-80; Ottawa, 52-78; Montreal, 52-79; Quebec, 52-78; St. John, 54-82; Halifax, 54-80.

Probabilities.
Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Showers and thunderstorms at first, then high northwest winds, fine and cooler.

Upper St. Lawrence and Ottawa—Showers and thunderstorms, followed tonight by high northwest winds; followed by cooler.

Mont St. Lawrence and Gulf—Unsettled with showers and thunderstorms.

Maritime—High northwest winds, fine and cooler.

Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta—Fine and warmer.

THE BAROMETER.

Time.	Ther. Bar.	Wind.
3 a.m.	29.48	N. W.
6 a.m.	29.48	N. W.
9 a.m.	29.48	N. W.
12 p.m.	29.48	N. W.
3 p.m.	29.48	N. W.
6 p.m.	29.48	N. W.
9 p.m.	29.48	N. W.

Mean of day, 70; difference from average, 2 above; highest, 81; lowest, 58.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

July 25.	At.	From.
Republic.	Boston.	Liverpool.
Republic.	Boston.	Manchester.
Republic.	Boston.	Philadelphia.
Republic.	Boston.	New York.
Republic.	Boston.	San Francisco.

TO-DAY IN TORONTO.

July 25.
Baseball, Toronto v. Rochester, Diamond Park, 4.

Scrabble Beach, amusements, afternoon and evening.

Hanlan's Point, amusements, afternoon and evening.

Band at Exhibition Park.

The band of the Royal Grenadiers, under the direction of Mr. J. Waldron, will play the following program in Exhibition Park this evening from 8 to 10.

March—Vamos..... Kliefner Selection—Yankee Consul..... Robyn Serenade—Wolf Lied..... her Strauss Cornet Solo..... Selected By Mr. C. J. Carls.

Overture—Barber of Seville..... Rossini Old German Air Variations..... H. Meade Including xylophone solo, Mr. H. Meade Selection—The Red Mill..... V. Herbert
March—Indienne..... Sellick Minuet—The Red Mill..... Sellick Humorous March—Oh, You Women..... Lincke

At Scarborough Beach.
The following program will be rendered by the Concert Band at Scarborough Beach this afternoon and evening:

Overture—Haydn..... Sullivan Grand Descriptive—Dance of the Athenians..... Danks
Selection of Popular Melodies..... Danks Overture—Tangled..... Rossini
Selection—The Red Mill..... V. Herbert
March—The Nile Maidens..... Loeys Dance—Man Behind the Gun..... Sousa

MARRIAGES.
ALLAN-IVES—On Wednesday, July 24, at St. John's Church, Toronto Junction, by the Rev. F. E. Bentley, St. John's, Walter, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ives, to William J. Allan of Hamilton.

GRAHAM-HOWDEN—On Wednesday, July 24, 1907, at the Congregational Church, Waverley, Mabel Maud, daughter of Samuel B. Howden, to Harry Alexander Graham.

MILLIGAN-McCOSH—On Wednesday, July 24, at Amador, Mich., by the Rev. G. F. Wilson, Miss Elna McCosh to Mr. Arthur Milligan of Toronto.

BIRTHS.
LEARY—On Saturday, July 20, 1907, at 167, at Mrs. E. T. Leary, Gormley P.O., a daughter.

WEIR—On Monday, July 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir of Brown's Corners, a daughter.

DEATHS.
BATTLE—At Thorold, Ont., Thursday morning, July 25, David, eldest son of Joseph Battle, aged 18 years and 6 months.

Funeral from the family residence, Monday, July 29, at 8.30 a.m., to the Church of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary, where requiem mass will be celebrated at 9 o'clock; thence to Lakeview Cemetery.

COOK—At Thursday, 25th inst., at his late residence, 56 Metcalfe-street, William W. Cook, in his 44th year.

Funeral on Saturday at 2.30 to Mt.
Pleasant Cemetery.

HEBER—On Wednesday evening, July 24, at the Dutch Farm, Danforth-avenue, Lewis Heber, aged 45 years.

Funeral Saturday, July 27, at 8.30 a. m., from address to St. Joseph's Church, thence to Mt. Hope Cemetery.

IRVIN—On July 25, 1907, John Wesley Irvin, dearly beloved husband of Alice Deyson, in his 40th year.

Funeral Saturday, at 3 p.m., from his late residence, 27 Carlton-street.

KEARNS—Mrs. Catharine Kearns (nee Treacy), aunt Rev. Dr. Treacy, at St.
James, Colgan, on Wednesday, 24th inst.

Funeral from residence to St. James' Cemetery at 10 a.m. Saturday, 27th inst.
R.I.P.

LAWRENCE—At her residence, Davis-ville, on Thursday, July 25, 1907, Mary Case Lawrence, relict of the late Robert Lawrence, aged 82 years.

Funeral at 3 p.m. Saturday, July 27, to Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

QUIGLEY—At 217 Beverley-street, Toronto, on Thursday, July 25, 1907, Ada May, fourth daughter of the late R. J. Quigley, aged 21 years.

Funeral from above address on Saturday, July 27, at 2.30 o'clock. Interment in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

SEYMOUR—On July 25, 1907, at the residence of her son, F. L. Stiver, Unioville, Mary Lomasborough, widow of the late Jacob Stiver, in her 75th year.

Funeral from her son's residence, Saturday at 2 p.m.

CROP CONDITIONS.

WINNIPEG, July 25.—(Special).— The C.P.R. weekly crop report shows that the grain and stock are greatly improved. In many sections the wheat is heading out.

RABBI HOLDS CORB FUNERAL

Solemn Open-Air Service Conducted Over Remains of Man Stricken on Street.

With the coffin lying upon the sidewalk before the undedicated Machzike Hadath Synagogue, 105 Teraulay-street, Rabbi Goldstein conducted funeral service over the remains of Mr. Fanny Shapiro, 60 Elm-street, who died of an epileptic seizure while being hurried to her home in a cab from Yonge and Hayter-streets.

Mrs. Shapiro, wife of Jacob Shapiro, was a widow, and the new synagogue Sunday with a golden key, she having been chosen for that honor by reason of the liberal donation of her husband to the building fund.

"The body was sent to Pittsburgh for burial last night, but before that, in the midst of a throng of hundreds of the idly curious gathered about the sorrowing friends around the coffin, which lay upon the pavement, Rabbi Goldstein, from the steps of the undedicated temple, led the exquisitely plaintive lamentation of the Jewish burial service.

With him, and joining the high, clear notes of their childish voices in the sobbing ones of the service, were some half-dozen boys.

The effect of this service of death, amidst the life of one of the most popular streets in the ward, and with the whole scene lit only by the shimmering gleams of the street lights, was vivid indeed. The young voices, enriched with the rabbi's rich baritone rose and fell in the wailing strains of the chant, and finally died away and faded into the workaday noises of the street.

Then the procession took up its way
and followed the remains to the station, where the coffin was placed in a hearse
and taken to Pittsburgh.

After the service, Mrs. Shapiro, who was a widow, and the new synagogue
Sunday with a golden key, she having
been chosen for that honor by reason
of the liberal donation of her husband
to the building fund.

"The body was sent to Pittsburgh for
burial last night, but before that, in
the midst of a throng of hundreds of
the idly curious gathered about the sor-
rowing friends around the coffin, which
lay upon the pavement, Rabbi Gold-
stein, from the steps of the undedicated
temple, led the exquisitely plaintive lamentation of the Jewish burial service.

With him, and joining the high, clear
notes of their childish voices in the
sobbing ones of the service, were some
half-dozen boys.

The effect of this service of death,
amidst the life of one of the most popular streets in the ward, and with the
whole scene lit only by the shimmering
gleams of the street lights, was
vivid indeed. The young voices, enriched with the rabbi's rich baritone rose
and fell in the wailing strains of the
chant, and finally died away and faded
into the workaday noises of the street.

Then the procession took up its way
and followed the remains to the station,
where the coffin was placed in a hearse
and taken to Pittsburgh.

After the service, Mrs. Shapiro, who
was a widow, and the new synagogue
Sunday with a golden key, she having
been chosen for that honor by reason
of the liberal donation of her husband
to the building fund.

"The body was sent to Pittsburgh for
burial last night, but before that, in
the midst of a throng of hundreds of
the idly curious gathered about the sor-
rowing friends around the coffin, which
lay upon the pavement, Rabbi Gold-
stein, from the steps of the undedicated
temple, led the exquisitely plaintive lamentation of the Jewish burial service.

With him, and joining the high, clear
notes of their childish voices in the
sobbing ones of the service, were some
half-dozen boys.

The effect of this service of death,
amidst the life of one of the most popular streets in the ward, and with the
whole scene lit only by the shimmering
gleams of the street lights, was
vivid indeed. The young voices, enriched with the rabbi's rich baritone rose
and fell in the wailing strains of the
chant, and finally died away and faded
into the workaday noises of the street.

Then the procession took up its way
and followed the remains to the station,
where the coffin was placed in a hearse
and taken to Pittsburgh.

After the service, Mrs. Shapiro, who
was a widow, and the new synagogue
Sunday with a golden key, she having
been chosen for that honor by reason
of the liberal donation of her husband
to the building fund.

"The body was sent to Pittsburgh for
burial last night, but before that, in
the midst of a throng of hundreds of
the idly curious gathered about the sor-
rowing friends around the coffin, which
lay upon the pavement, Rabbi Gold-
stein, from the steps of the undedicated
temple, led the exquisitely plaintive lamentation of the Jewish burial service.

With him, and joining the high, clear
notes of their childish voices in the
sobbing ones of the service, were some
half-dozen boys.

The effect of this service of death,
amidst the life of one of the most popular streets in the ward, and with the
whole scene lit only by the shimmering
gleams of the street lights, was
vivid indeed. The young voices, enriched with the rabbi's rich baritone rose
and fell in the wailing strains of the
chant, and finally died away and faded
into the workaday noises of the street.

Then the procession took up its way
and followed the remains to the station,
where the coffin was placed in a hearse
and taken to Pittsburgh.

After the service, Mrs. Shapiro, who
was a widow, and the new synagogue
Sunday with a golden key, she having
been chosen for that honor by reason
of the liberal donation of her husband
to the building fund.

"The body was sent to Pittsburgh for
burial last night, but before that, in
the midst of a throng of hundreds of
the idly curious gathered about the sor-
rowing friends around the coffin, which
lay upon the pavement, Rabbi Gold-
stein, from the steps of the undedicated
temple, led the exquisitely plaintive lamentation of the Jewish burial service.

With him, and joining the high, clear
notes of their childish voices in the
sobbing ones of the service, were some
half-dozen boys.

The effect of this service of death,
amidst the life of one of the most popular streets in the ward, and with the
whole scene lit only by the shimmering
gleams of the street lights, was
vivid indeed. The young voices, enriched with the rabbi's rich baritone rose
and fell in the wailing strains of the
chant, and finally died away and faded
into the workaday noises of the street.

Then the procession took up its way
and followed the remains to the station,
where the coffin was placed in a hearse
and taken to Pittsburgh.

After the service, Mrs. Shapiro, who
was a widow, and the new synagogue
Sunday with a golden key, she having
been chosen for that honor by reason
of the liberal donation of her husband
to the building fund.

"The body was sent to Pittsburgh for
burial last night, but before that, in
the midst of a throng of hundreds of
the idly curious gathered about the sor-
rowing friends around the coffin, which
lay upon the pavement, Rabbi Gold-
stein, from the steps of the undedicated
temple, led the exquisitely plaintive lamentation of the Jewish burial service.

With him, and joining the high, clear
notes of their childish voices in the
sobbing ones of the service, were some
half-dozen boys.

The effect of this service of death,
amidst the life of one of the most popular streets in the ward, and with the
whole scene lit only by the shimmering
gleams of the street lights, was
vivid indeed. The young voices, enriched with the rabbi's rich baritone rose
and fell in the wailing strains of the
chant, and finally died away and faded
into the workaday noises of the street.

Then the procession took up its way
and followed the remains to the station,
where the coffin was placed in a hearse
and taken to Pittsburgh.

After the service, Mrs. Shapiro, who
was a widow, and the new synagogue
Sunday with a golden key, she having
been chosen for that honor by reason
of the liberal donation of her husband
to the building fund.

"The body was sent to Pittsburgh for
burial last night, but before that, in
the midst of a throng of hundreds of
the idly curious gathered about the sor-
rowing friends around the coffin, which
lay upon the pavement, Rabbi Gold-
stein, from the steps of the undedicated
temple, led the exquisitely plaintive lamentation of the Jewish burial service.

With him, and joining the high, clear
notes of their childish voices in the
sobbing ones of the service, were some
half-dozen boys.

The effect of this service of death,
amidst the life of one of the most popular streets in the ward, and with the
whole scene lit only by the shimmering
gleams of the street lights, was
vivid indeed. The young voices, enriched with the rabbi's rich baritone rose
and fell in the wailing strains of the
chant, and finally died away and faded
into the workaday noises of the street.

Then the procession took up its way
and followed the remains to the station,
where the coffin was placed in a hearse
and taken to Pittsburgh.