BISHOPS IN PULPIT.

To-morrow's Church Services—Some Notes of the Ministry.

Right Rev. Dr. Scadding, Bishop of Oregon, will preach at All Saints on Sunday evening on "The History of the American Church and its Relation to the Mother Church of England."

The Bishop of Oregon will also deliver an address to new arrivals at the British Welcome League headquarters, Front-street, on Sunday afternoon, at 2 p.m. All old country people are invited to attend.

Right Rev. Dr. Deane Suffragan Bishop of Toronto, will preach at St. James' Cathedral on Sunday morning.

Rev. T. L. Tapscott, M.A., pastor of Calvary Church, Victoria, B.C., has been invited by the board of the Baptist convention of Western Canada, to devote himself to evangelism under their direction. Mr. Tapscott has not as yet decided.

Rev. W. D. Magee of Clinton and Base Line churches has resigned his pastorate, and closes his labors on Sunday, Sept. 22. Mr. Magee has accepted a call to become pastor at Manitou, Man., where he begins on Oct. 6.

Rev. L. W. Patterson, son of the late lamented Prof. J. Harwood Patterson of Rochester Theological Seminary, who has been pastor at Manitou, Man., and at Disbury and Olds, Alta., is leaving shortly for England, where he purposes studying evangelistic work and methods in London for a year.

Rev. John MacNeill, B.A., of Walmer-road Baptist Church starts on Sunday, Sept. 22, a series of sermons on "The subject on that occasion will be 'The Challenge of the Church to Men.' One Sunday evening of each of the following month will be given to the presentation of a subject of special interest to men."

Rev. J. B. Fotheringham, M.A., the newly-appointed assistant priest of St. Luke's Church, will preach Sunday morning.

SOCIALISTS BARRED.

Are Refused Privilege of Using Berlin's Band Stand.

BERLIN, Ont., Sept. 20.—(Special).—This evening A. W. Mance, who has been addressing several meetings this week from the town bandstand, under the auspices of the Ontario Socialist party, was informed by Dr. Chisholm, chairman of the markets committee, that he must cease. Complaints had been made that the speaker had uttered derogatory sentiments when speaking of the militia. From 800 to 1200 people have been listening to the addresses.

To-night's table was placed in the market square, and electric light being refused, a lamp was used to give light. A big crowd gathered. Dr. Chisholm was invited to give the names of those who complained, but mentioned only one, Banker Scott.

The Socialists say that the doctor has only advertised the meetings, two more of which will be held Saturday and Sunday nights. To-morrow the subject is "The Trusts From the Socialist Point of View."

Re Race Ticket Privilege.

"Mr. Muller very kindly offered to look after the sale of race tickets up to us. Indeed he considered it a privilege to do so," said a director of the Ontario Jockey Club. The innovation has been one of those small conveniences which are most appreciated and many have taken advantage of it. Muller's cigar store, in the Traders' Bank Building, is worth seeing, and the out-of-town folks attending the races have had a double pleasure.

Are You Afraid of Typhoid?

At this season many persons are apt to be nervous about their water supply.

Nervousness is an enemy to health. Be on the safe side. Drink radnor water, for you can have no worry as to its purity.

Radnor comes to us from an absolute pure source in the Laurentian Mountains.

THE CRUSH AT THE GATE

Can Be Avoided by Securing Race Tickets Uptown.

Gentlemen, particularly when they are accompanied by ladies, are frequently inconvenienced when securing tickets for the races at the Woodbine track. The directors have made arrangements for the sale of gate tickets uptown. Mr. G. W. Muller has consented to take charge of the sale, and the tickets may be had at his cigar store in the Traders' Bank Building.

PINKERTON'S LARGE ESTATE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The will of Robert Allan Pinkerton, head of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, died today, disposing of an estate valued at $3,000,000. Nearly all the property is left to his widow, Anne Elizabeth Pinkerton; his son, Allan, and his two daughters, Anna F. Gibbs and Mary F. Carlisle.

Mr. C. J. Towns has returned from his annual trip to Europe. He has now on view at his rooms in East King-street some choice pieces of old mahogany, which he has offered at a very handsome sideboard and some thirty paintings of the old masters, which formerly graced the castle of Mary, Queen of Scots. He will shortly have on exhibition a collection of paintings, which is by far the most important that has ever been shown in Toronto by auction. Those wishing a catalog sent to them will please write to it.

WERE NO DEEDS OF VIOLENCE

Italian People Refrained from Demonstrations of Hostility Against Church—Two Big Parades.

ROME, Sept. 20.—Armed men in the service of the Pope have been on guard all day long at the entrances of the apostolic palace, and the Vatican has been under the especial protection of a detachment of royal troops, but there has been no active outbreak of anti-clerical sentiments, and Sept. 20, the 37th anniversary of the occupation of Rome by Italian troops, and the fall of the temporal power of the papacy, has passed without the fulfillment of any of the fears entertained by the Vatican that the Italian people would today do deeds of violence to their ill-feeling against the church.

There were two big parades this afternoon thru the streets of the city, and the red shawl of the Garibaldian veterans were conspicuous in the throng. The first parade was official and composed of the members of fifty local associations. The leaders laid wreaths on the tombs of the Victor Emmanuel II and King Humbert, and decorated with flowers the tablet at the Porta Pia, which commemorates the entry of the Italian troops in 1870. The other parade was popular and unofficial. It marched in the direction of the Porta Pia, which commemorates the entry of the Italian troops in 1870. The other parade was popular and unofficial. It marched in the direction of the Porta Pia, which commemorates the entry of the Italian troops in 1870.

During the day the police seized a number of anti-monarchist proclamations, and the walls of the city were plastered with appeals to the people to "complete the anti-clerical victory at the coming municipal elections."

THE ALMA MATER

pal throne means a relaxation from hard work. But in Dr. Scadding's case it is the reverse, for his diocese is co-extensive with the State of Oregon, which is so large that the bishop of Great Britain, placed in its centre and all the standing armies of the world paraded around it four times, would still be within its boundaries. His people are for the most part Anglo-Saxon sturdy Americans, who have moved from the east; Englishmen, Scotchmen and Canadians, who have settled on ranches or in the towns. To provide for these spiritual needs the bishop has only 20 resident clergy to look after the 65 parishes and missions. Since his appointment the bishop has visited and preached at each one of these centres, and he appeals to his Canadian and English friends, especially the young men who are leaving college, to become ministers to go out to Oregon to help along the growth and prosperity. Some day we shall have strong, self-supporting parishes in many of these towns, but for the present our missions are helped from outside, and I know of no field where the church at large can make more profitable investment of her best energies and liberally contributions for religion than in Oregon. To me the opportunities seem manifold and magnificent, but I need clergymen of the right kind, godly, earnest, tactful, zealous, constructive teachers and workers.

Also that if the Anglo-Saxon race are to be maintained in the church, the only medium by which that happy event can be brought about.

Dr. Scadding is one of four of Trinity's sons who have attained exalted rank in the Episcopal Church of the States, the others being the present bishops of Chicago, Alaska and the Philippines.

Men Are Wanted.

The bishop is warm in his praise of Our Trinity College. He says: "There is no better place where one can graduate, and he is planning to send some young men from his diocese to Trinity for their theological training."

The bishop says: "From the earliest ages the intelligent, energetic, enterprising part of the human race has been constantly drifting westward, and I know of no field where the church at large can make more profitable investment of her best energies and liberally contributions for religion than in Oregon. To me the opportunities seem manifold and magnificent, but I need clergymen of the right kind, godly, earnest, tactful, zealous, constructive teachers and workers."

dent, the late William Hendrie of Hamilton. Precipitated a Struggle.

Mr. Patterson at the time was con- sidering many items of considerable value to the Empire, then in the last years of its existence. In one of these paragraphs Mr. Patterson mentions the portrait of Hendrie, referring to members of Hendrie's family. The result of the quarrel that followed was a very bitter fight regarding the control of the O.C.C. Shares of the club sold at $500, although only $30 had been paid up. The late George Gooderham was a supporter of Mr. Patterson in the fight, but when it became so hot, and clearly a case of money, that gentleman declared to go no further. The result was that Mr. Hendrie won the battle by securing fifty-two of the ninety-two allotted shares. This practically gave the ownership of the track and the control of the Ontario Jockey Club to the Hendrie family. Sir Frank Smith accepted the presidency, and Mr. Hendrie became vice-president. From that day to this Mr. Patterson had not entered the gates of the Woodbine. That his support to local turf interests was sadly misapprehended, referring to Hendrie's Jockey Club survived, and its history has been one of continued progress; but for all that it cannot be forgotten that it was Mr. Patterson who organized the club and gave racing its splendid impetus in Canada. He endeavored to raise a social success when he secured the attendance of Lord Lorne and his royal spouse, the Princess Louise. From that time society has adopted the sport, and the best people in the land have been its patrons.

Prominent in Athletics.

Mr. Patterson's sporting interest was not confined to horse-racing, for in his college and school days he was prominent as an all-round athlete, being both a crack runner and jumper. He was an A.C. cricketer, and as a wicket-keeper at one time, was unexcelled in Canada. He was captain on more than one occasion in the early sixties of the centenary of the dawn of Italy's liberty, as symbolized in the Treaty of Rome, Sept. 20, 1870, was the occasion of an enthusiastic demonstration last night in the Italian mission, at the corner of Agnes and Toronto-streets. The audience numbered about 200 people.

A special feature was the rendering of patriotic songs by a chorus of fifteen children, dressed in Garibaldi costumes. Speeches were made by Superintendent Merlino, Alexander Mills and Chas. Cassoli, and a program of vocal and instrumental music was given by M. C. Curly, L.L.C.S.; T. Berri and Mrs. Berri, Ethel Ansley and Ida Day.
