AT OSGOODE HALL.

An Interesting Point Disposed of in Connection With the Commercial Travellers' Mutual Benefit Society.

In Henderson v Canada Atlantic Railway Company, the question discussed before Mr. Justice Ferguson was whether the flagman of the defendants at the crossing when the accident for which the plaintiff claims damages occurred, was an "officer" examinable for discovery within rule 487. Judgment was reserved.

QUESTION OF A SEIZURE.

In re Hill v. Hicks, the plaintiff sued the defendants in the Fourth Division Court of County of Leeds and Grenville for $50 damages for the wrongful seizure and sale in the adjoining County of Carleton of a horse belonging to him. The defendant Hicks is a bailiff in the County of Carleton and the seizure and sale, at the instance of defendant Thompson, the creditor, were made in that county. The defendants reside in different Division Court divisions in the County of Carleton. The defendants moved for prohibition before Mr. Justice Ferguson in Chambers. Secs. 81, 87, 88 and 89 of the Division Courts Act were referred to and also re Thompson v. Hay, 22 O.R. 582, 589; 20 A.R. 379; Brazil v. Johns, 24 O.R. 209. Judgment was reserved.

THE BROTHER GETS THE MONEY.

The Commercial Travelers' Mutual Benefit Society of Western Ontario, by its certificate of membership, dated 10th May, 1888, promised "to pay as many dollars at the end of 60 days' notice, to the society, of the death of James Thorpe Fisher, as there are members in good standing in the society, to Mrs. Agnes E. E. Fisher, his wife, or such other beneficiary or beneficiaries as said J. T. Fisher may in his lifetime have designated in writing endorsed on this certificate, and in default of any such designation, to his legal representatives." Before his death, the insured made the following endorsation on the certificate: "Toronto, Ont., April 12, 1892—I hereby assign and transfer all my right, title, interest and claim in the within policy to my brother Robert Grant Fisher, to whom I direct payment of the same upon my death." The society paid the money to the brother, and the present action of Fisher v. Fisher is brought by the widow against the brother. The widow claims the money upon the proper legal construction of the certificate, and made a motion before the Master in Chambers, who referred it to a judge for an order directing a trial of the legal question of the construction of the certificate before the trial of the action, in which the defendant set up a counter claim. The motion was refused.

A POINTER FOR SOLICITORS.

Mr. Justice Ferguson has decided that every solicitor should have the word "accuracy" printed in large letters and pasted on his desk. The reason of this decision arose in the case of Scott v. Niagara Navigation, in which the plaintiff's solicitor, not noticing the amendment hidden away in the schedule to the Law Courts Act of 1896, requiring a jury notice to be filed and served within four days from the close of the pleadings, did not file a jury notice till the 9th December, 1896. The statement of defence had been filed on 16th September, 1896. The official referee refused to allow the notice to stand, because he thought he had no discretion in the matter. On finding he had, but no power to reverse his own order, he told the plaintiff's solicitor that had he known his powers he would have allowed the jury notice to stand. The plaintiff fell through a coal hole in the deck of the steamer Chicora, and the action is for damages and is accordingly one for trial by jury. The plaintiff appealed to a Judge in Chambers from the referee's order. The learned judge allowed the jury notice to stand, but directed the costs to be to the defendants in any event.

A CASE FROM LENNOX.

In Parkes v. Baker, the Divisional Court reserved judgment upon the plaintiff's appeal from the order of Falconbridge, J., affirming an order granted directing plaintiff to give security for costs of defendant Northmore. The action is for damages for malicious conspiracy to charge plaintiff and his daughter with incest. Defendant Northmore is Health Officer at Bath and associate coroner for Lennox and Addington. The plaintiff contended that Northmore was not sued in his official capacity, and therefore not entitled to security for costs as provided by sec. 7, Law Courts Act of 1896.

The court also reserved judgment in Neiles v. Hamilton, Grimsby & Beamsville Railway Company upon defendants appeal from judgment of Falconbridge, J., after verdict of jury for $700 damages for wrongful dismissal.

Opening of the Assizes

The Criminal and Civil Assizes opened yesterday, Mr. Justice Robertson presiding. The grand jurymen are: James Anderson, Albert Bogart, Charles J. Brodie, Henry Grose, S. H. Hart, Grant Helliwell, George Jackson, Edmund M. Jarvis, Daniel Kemp, Reginald Lockhart, Fred B. Mason, Simpson Rennie. Mr. Anderson was chosen foreman. Mr. J. K. Kerr, Q.C., is the Crown prosecutor.

After a short address to the jury, the court adjourned until this morning.

The charges against Samuel Rowatt for shooting his wife and Bert Lyons, murder, may not be taken up at this sitting.

These Were Fined.

Magistrate Miller yesterday afternoon decided that Ed. McGarry was the man who broke some glass last summer in a building belonging to John O'Donoghue. The fine was $2 and costs or 20 days. Thomas Shaw had harbored a dog which carried no tag, and he also must pay $2 and costs. The same penalty was inflicted on James Humphrey, who owned up to having called a neighbor, William Hawthorne, some hard names.

Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, griping, etc. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their heart's content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellog's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief, and is a sure cure for all summer complaints. ed

One of the many cases of rupture radically cured by wearing a Wilkinson Truss is that of Mr. J. W. C. Allen of McDonald & Allen, Kingston, Ont., who was fitted with a truss by M. B. Lindman, the expert, 85 York-street (Rossin House Block), Toronto, and who writes on Sept. 10th as follows:

I have been badly ruptured for the past nine years, and during that time have been fitted with many different kinds of trusses, manufactured not only in Canada, but in the United States, without obtaining relief. On April 19, 1896, I purchased from you a Wilkinson Truss, being advised by a physician to do so, and I feel confident that I am now perfectly cured. I can assure you that I feel thankful for the results, and if you wish you can refer to me for reference. 26

SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS.

A member of the Toronto Board of Trade went to Chicago on Saturday to try and diagnose the wheat situation there. He wired his firm here to-day that he could not find a bull on wheat in Chicago, and they all talked 75c for May before long. We merely give this for what it is worth. Usually when the word all heralds the market is at about bottom prices.
