THE HONOR FOR A CANADIAN.

Dr. Riordan Elected President of the Society of Railway Surgeons.

Unique Case of Stroke by Lightning Considered by the Association—Officers Elected—Afternoon and Night of Entertainment—Will See Muskoka To-day.

The Normal School theatre was jammed yesterday morning with applauding surgeons when Dr. C. F. Leslie of Clyde, Kansas, gave his report on the case of George Stein, a brakeman of the Missouri Pacific, who was struck by lightning at August, while riding on the top of a freight car. The case is of peculiar interest from being, as Dr. Leslie claims, the only one of the kind on record.

The train was running at a speed of 20 miles an hour and was just outside Clyde, Kansas, when the thunderbolt descended. The luckless brakeman, who was sitting on his brake, fell head foremost on a pile of stones by the embankment. When picked up he was unconscious and blood was pouring out of both ears. His hat and neckerchief were cut clean in two by the lightning, his watch chain was completely melted and a portion of his abdomen torn out. He vomited blood for 30 hours and the bleeding at the ears continued for 10 days.

The doctor described how he put cold applications to the head and injected morphine and strychnine into his body. He gradually recovered and went back to work as brakeman four months later.

Election of President.
The convention now got to work to elect a president for the year. Dr. Lutz of St. Louis, Mo., jumped up to nominate Dr. Bruce L. Riordan of Toronto. He did so.

Dr. Riordan, however, favored Dr. Bouffleur of Chicago. "We are one people," he exclaimed, "we know no Mexico, no Canada, no United States, and I speak for a Chicago man, a spot midway of all this vast territory."

The applause that greeted Dr. Bouffleur's name showed how large was his following and deservedly so. The Chicagoan is a fine looking, athletic built man of about 30, with a clever face and laughing blue eyes. He is regarded by the medical fraternity as a coming man and his host of friends swore that to get one grasp of his hand means devotion forever.

They Took Their Choice.
The struggle between two such antagonists could not fail to be of interest and, despite Dr. McOscar's disclaimer, there was no sectionalism in the contest. All hands present wished good luck to their man.

Chicago has had two out of the three last conventions and it is proposed that the western city have the next president as well as suit numbers in the convention. Dr. Jay, even though of Chicago, however, declared that if Dr. Bouffleur was elected he wouldn't attend the convention and several others muttered in agreement.

Dr. Brock of Virginia declared, amid cheers, that if there was anything good in Toronto, Dr. Riordan had got it for them. There were loud cries now of "vote," and when the ballots, which were collected in straw hats were counted the secretary read out:

Dr. Riordan 135.
Dr. Bouffleur 82.

The shouting was now tremendous. "Bring out the culprit," and peals of laughter followed. Red in the face, yet as radiant as the brightest of his work, Dr. Riordan was almost dragged on the platform.

Dr. Bouffleur, as chairman of the committee to which had been deputed the work of introducing the new president, said with a graceful bow, "Your committee has the honor to announce that it has secured the doctor," and then there was more cheering.

One didn't know which to admire most, the honored Canadian or the smiling doctor from Chicago, who, just as he took his defeat so generously.

An Honor to Canada.
Dr. Riordan declared, in a new speech, that he took the honor, not as intended for him personally, but to his country and Toronto.

The session then broke up with three cheers and a "tiger" for Toronto and exclamations that it would be Dr. Bouffleur next year.

The resolutions include a strong hope that the Union of Railway Surgeons of the two countries was only a prelude to the reunion of the peoples themselves.

Vice-Presidents.
The newly-elected vice-presidents are: R. E. L. Kinsaid, of Texas; James E. Hunt, of Ufa, N.Y.; James L. Foxon, of St. Louis; W. Gunn, Clinton, Ont.; A. H. McOscar, of Toronto; Conn. F. Leach, of Kansas; Hugh M. Taylor, Richmond, Va.; F. G. Lutz, St. Louis, Mo.; James Hutchinson, Montreal; and H. L. Geiz, Marshalltown, Iowa.

OSHAWA'S QUOTA TO CUBA.

Lieutenant Norman Rae, No. 3 Co., 34th Battalion, with headquarters at Oshawa, went to Buffalo yesterday in order to enlist in the American army and proceed to the scene of conflict in Cuba. Speaking to The World, Lieutenant Rae said he would first try to get a commission in the army, but if that failed, "I am in it as a private," was his determined remark.

Mr. Rae is a man of 24, short and stout. He is a third year Trinity med. and holds a first-class certificate of fitness from Stanley Barracks, where he spent six months active training. He has a splendid physique and will stand any amount of hardship. He is actuated by the desire for adventure rather than by patriotic motives, and believes that as a young man he has everything to gain by going to the front.

He promised to let The World know how he progressed with his enterprise.

Chicago Gossip.
