KITCHENER MAKING
NO MOVE TO COAX
PARKES FROM PROSMike Kaplansky Is Manager
Again For This Year—
Other Officers Announced.

KITCHENER, Nov. 9.—The Kitchener hockey team officers have been announced, following a conference here today. They are: Secretary, E. Roschman; treasurer, A. E. Pernfuss; manager, Mike Kaplansky. The appointment of "Kap" is manager is received with general favor throughout the Twin City district.

The Kitchener senior hockey interests are making no move to keep Ernie Parkes, who is reported to have signed up with the C. N. A.

While Manager Kaplansky willingly admits that the loss of Parkes to the team at this time is a severe blow, it is generally admitted that nothing is being done to argue him out of his decision. If Parkes concedes his contract with the professional outfit, it will be of his own free-will, without any coaxing from his associates here. This is not because Ernie is not popular, but because his erstwhile companions are loath to interfere with any ambition which the star may have. When he leaves town it will be with a salvo of good wishes.

The juvenile hockey committee of the Kitchener-Waterloo Amateur Athletic Association announced this afternoon that the News-Record Company, limited, publishers of the Daily Record, had donated a handsome silver cup as the trophy for the Twin City Juvenile hockey League. The donation has been accepted. The league will be composed of the various public and separate schools of Kitchener and Waterloo.

Soccer Meeting Saturday
Marks New Era For GameLondon and District Group of O. F. A. To Be Formed At Open Meeting Means Replacement of W. F. A.—Two Soccer Divisions Likely For London.

Saturday, O. F. A. football will practically take over the functions of the W. F. A. at an open meeting to be held in this city.

It undoubtedly means, for London alone, a scale of soccer hardly contemplated a couple of years ago, and if it does that for London, where the game was never strong until this year, it will do much more for St. Thomas and Sarnia where soccer has had a fairly large following and a persistent band of enthusiasts every season in the past.

Playing fields which must be easy of access affects soccer more the least of any pastime played, such is the loyalty of its followers, and London possesses the necessary playing fields, if they are not centrally located, to carry on with two divisions for next year, if it is found advisable to introduce that many soccer teams in one season. Both St. Thomas and Sarnia are in splendid shape right now for the enlargement of the game in each of the cities and are planning to that end.

Both cities will be represented at the Saturday meeting, at which the London and district association will be formed. The introduction of a new organization into the football affairs of this district should do much to quicken the local spirit. The W. F. A. in many ways was a splendid organization, and for years kept the game going against every kind of obstacle and despite the apathy of people who had been weaned away from soccer.

The O. F. A. comes in at a time when the pastime is experiencing a revival, and with its organization, should be the factor giving ultimate stability to soccer in this end of the province.

CLASS BABY'S RATTLES
AS ATHLETIC GOODS

Lansing, Nov. 10.—Infants' rattles are henceforth to be classed as athletic apparatus by the Michigan State boxing commission. Tom Biggers, the commission's chairman, so decided yesterday, when application for a "class of baby rattles" was made by Superintendent Montgomery of the State School for Orphans and Abandoned Children at Goddard.

Among the commission's duties is the distribution among schools of athletic goods purchased with a fund drawn from boxing bouts in the state. The Colwater requisition was the first to include athletic equipment for such young athletes, but Biggers was quick to decide that rattles could be so classed. The state's waria at Colwater range in age from several months to 16 years.

OTTAWA TRYING TO CAPTURE BIG GAME

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—Ottawa is making a great effort to land the big football classic between Varsity and McGill. Controller Kent is in communication with Varsity and McGill officials with a view towards having the game played here. He is offering special inducements for the game, and will have a seating accommodation arranged for the greatest crowd that Ottawa has ever turned out to witness a final.

WOULD CANCEL PERMITS.

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—(By the Canadian Press).—Discussing today the deception of Toronto people in connection with the substitution of Billy Cannon for Frankie Burns last Friday night, Capt. Archibald, Ottawa's representative on the Ontario boxing and wrestling commission, said: "If the facts are as alleged, those responsible for the affair should have their permits cancelled and should be barred forever by the commission. It is very unfortunate that the charge should be made against the first man to receive a referee's license under the new act."

WOULD LEGALIZE BOXING.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—A bill to legalize boxing in the state was ready to be introduced to the Illinois legislature today. Ald. Joseph Kostner, the bill as a whole is similar to the one drawn up by the Illinois Athletic Commission, which was presented in the State Legislature by its sponsors after submission to the city council for endorsement. It provides for a state athletic commission of three men to be appointed by the governor. The bill shall not be longer than five rounds, and six-ounce gloves must be worn.

The mix-up over the Valler-Burns (Gambon) fight, about the time the fight was to take place, the dispatch published in the Toronto Globe, that Smith Philadelphia sportsman, has turned on Secretary Fitzgerald, who stopped the fight, by saying that Lou E. Marsh, who made up the bout, knew that substitution was being made. Kostner, the Philadelphia sportsman, who was responsible for the fight, sends the dispatch and it might conceivably be intended to put Marsh in wrong with Toronto fans without there being much foundation for Smith's assertions. Marsh was third man in the ring at the Wallace-Wills fight.

At any rate, the Ontario Boxing Commission showed that they are more than a name and intend to clean up the sport. They have a big job on their hands, but their quick action in this affair and the follow-up is a clear indication they intend to handle it.

BECKONS SHARKEY

JIMMY WILDE, the British Atom, has wired Sharkey an offer of $25,000 to meet him in London. Sharkey's verdict over the Britisher in his first American fight has sort of riled Ed, and he would like to see their idol wipe off that doubtful smudge.

JOHNSON WANTS
MINOR LEAGUES
TO BE NEUTRAL"Ban" Urges Them Not To Take Sides in Baseball
"War To Finish."

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—The minor baseball leagues of the country in convention here today were urged by President Ban Johnson, of the American League, to follow a "hands off" policy in the baseball war, and to take no action that would be partisan to either side.

President Johnson, here for the announced purpose of preventing the minors from joining with the new National League in the league plan of reorganization, addressed the convention this afternoon.

Proponents of the new league and the league plan will appear later. The political shake-up in the National Association of Minor Leagues, which, it was rumored, was being engineered by the faction said to be favorable to President Johnson in the baseball war, failed to materialize. John H. Farrell was re-elected secretary for ten years, and Mike Sexton of Rock Island was re-elected president, but will not accept or reject the office until tomorrow.

Efforts were made to have Sexton replace Farrell as secretary, the chief office, but enough votes were not mustered. It is planned, however, to give Sexton a salary of $5,000 per annum. Heretofore he served without compensation. Previous to his address before the convention, President Johnson issued a statement, declaring that "it was war to a finish," and that the American League would place new clubs in Chicago, New York and Boston to replace those joining the new National League.

"What baseball needs is to get rid of some of its recalcitrant club owners," he said.

As You Were

Beginning or End. The beginning of a baseball war or the end of Ban Johnson's reign.

Austrian, Chicago Club's lawyer, says Johnson has no control over players of American League clubs in new league. "I do not care to say at present whether even this power, which voluntarily has been given the league, is lawful."

The fact that Mr. Fultz sneers at the idea of the league plan being accepted by the minors probably doesn't worry anybody very much. About the time the International meeting rolls around he'll be able to join in with Ban, with a falsetto on the chorus: "When I was president."

This is a tough world for the poor ball player. A war on and no shipyards to go to.

"McGill Declines to Toss Coin." Heading. "It can't be because they haven't got one, because where Shag is, is, and will be plenty of 'em."

A Brantford dispatch says that Tom Nelson and the Brantford Club stand behind Comiskey at the minor leagues meeting. Next to waking up to find the gambling charges were all a part of a bad dream, this news from the M.-O. is probably the most cheerful comely could bear. Now Ban, bring on the fight!

Even South America wouldn't stand for Sam McVey and his vaudeville straight down there apparently.

Vardon and Ray cleaned up on all the Yank golfers and about $15,000 apiece, while on their recent tour. That news ought to fill most of the golf links in Scotland, with the originators of the game.

Amongst those "wets" who come out into the open and proclaim their stand loudest must be placed the "spitters" who are wondering just how "when" they'll play baseball next year or so back home to the cuspidor.

London's slogan—100,000 population and then—a hockey team.

WATERLOO TO ENTER O. H. A. JUNIOR SERIES IN 1921.

WATERLOO, Nov. 9.—Following the meeting at the Commercial Hotel here, the announcement was made of the organization of a Junior hockey club for Waterloo. The club executive claims there is excellent material available in Waterloo for a world-beating sextet.

The officers of the new organization are: Honorary presidents, E. F. Seare, Herb Kuntz, A. G. Haehnel and Tom Seagram; president, Ed Seagram; secretary, "Dep" Kump; manager, Ed Ross; executive, John Ziegler, Sim Kiewetter, Jerome Sehl, Ziegler, L. Quinn; trainer, Fred MacAvoy.

Ban Has No Control Over
Players of New League
Says Chicago CounselPlayers Belong To Clubs Which Are Voluntary Members of League—New Circuit Prepares For Fight.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The American League has no power to hold the players on the three clubs which have joined the new National League, and every man on these clubs can play in the new organization next year, according to an opinion given tonight by Alfred Austrian, attorney for the two Chicago major league clubs, and adviser in the drafting of the league plan for reorganization of the game.

President Johnson, here for the announced purpose of preventing the minors from joining with the new National League in the league plan of reorganization, addressed the convention this afternoon.

Proponents of the new league and the league plan will appear later. HERRMANN TO PRESENT PLAN
TO THE MINORSWill Endeavor to Offset Good
Johnson.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—With the opening shots fired in the scramble to win the support of the National Association of Minor Leagues, August Herrmann, owner of the Cincinnati, and a leader in the organization of a twelve-club league, is to address the convention of minor league leaders here today in an appeal for endorsement.

Lester plan for baseball reorganization. Mr. Herrmann will attempt to offset the unfavorable impression created by the minor league leaders yesterday by Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and George McMillen, the American League attorney, who urged the minors to appoint a committee of three to meet with a similar committee from the major leagues in a final effort to avert a baseball war.

President Johnson, in opposing the Lester plan, told the minor league leaders that the management of baseball should remain in the hands of men who have devoted their lives to the sport, instead of being turned over to men outside the game.

Sexton Favors Plan. What action the minor leagues will take in the minor league dispute remains problematical, but it is expected they will consider both plans in the five season, and then refuse to take sides in the issue, leaving the threatened war to the major leagues for settlement. "I do not see how we can be expected to take sides in the situation," said M. H. Sexton, president of the National Association of Minor Leagues, today. "President Johnson of the American League very frankly asked me not to show any favor to either side. I think it would be the only fair thing to do. It is my opinion that the minor leagues will not give any consideration to the Lester plan. We are satisfied to govern our own affairs as we have done for the last two years, at least until some definite plan for a new national commission with minor league representation is created."

The proposition made by President Johnson to the minors yesterday, of laying them equal representation in the formation of a new national commission, sharing equal power with the National and American Leagues, seemed to be favorably received. For a score of years the minor leagues have fought for such representation, but without success.

Off the Ropes and Mittin' 'Em

Ted Lewis with his family has sailed for England, where he expects to pick up the I. A. D., which translated into exchange, probably makes boxing just as profitable in England as in America. Lewis, when he returns, wants to have another chance at Britain, who changed punches and crowns with him successfully. They might match him with Johnny Rashan.

"Th golf game between Carpenter and Dempsey, which he expects to pick up the light fans fairly rock with surprise. It was not so in the old days, they claimed. As a matter of fact, they don't need to go back to the time Charley Mitchell chased Jim Corbett all over the place, looking for a rough and tumble, or to the numerous other times when if the principals themselves didn't throw things at each other the meetings were postponed by members of the rival camps taking swings at each other. As late as the Burns-Johnson preliminary negotiations, real fighting feelings were introduced into offices where articles were signed. Burns was licked long before he ever stepped into the ring at Sydney with the black. When they met to sign articles, it was with difficulty Burns was kept from going to the mat with the big black, and thereby getting whipped three months ahead of time. Burns whipped himself from that moment, for he lapsed into a sullen anger against Johnson, while the black, knowing Burns displayed weakness, paled on it with taunts, when he got a white man inside the ropes. Australian fight fans believe to this day that if Burns had kept his head, he would never have been beaten by Johnson, that trip at least.

The mix-up over the Valler-Burns (Gambon) fight, about the time the fight was to take place, the dispatch published in the Toronto Globe, that Smith Philadelphia sportsman, has turned on Secretary Fitzgerald, who stopped the fight, by saying that Lou E. Marsh, who made up the bout, knew that substitution was being made.
