BRITISH MINERS CALL ON PREMIER

Triple Alliance Called for Tomorrow to Hear His Answer.

the coal miners' dispute, altho among the more optimistic bope has been retyred from the fact that a meeting of the "triple alliance" has been called for Thursday to hear the reply of Premier Lloyd George to the committee of the alliance which visited him fat today.

The reply of the premier was a reterration of the proposal made to the miners' executive committee the previous day that, there being a difference of opinion between the miners and figures, the question of an increase of wages should be referred to an impartial tribunal, or, alternatively, the miners should consent to work out with the colliery proprietors and the government some scheme whereby in return for increased production the miners exheme whereby in return for increased production the miners exheme whereby in return for increased production the miners could get increased wages.

After the conference the triple alliance committee met and decided to call a full meeting of the three organizations for Thursday.

MAMILTON GIRL MISSING. Miss L. Montray, whose picture ap Miss L. Montray, whose picture appears above, has been missing from Hamilton since Sunday, September 12, when without warning to her parents, residing at 84 Ontario avenue, Hamilton, she disappeared. Altho police officials in all surrounding towns have been on the outlook, nothing of her whereabouts has been discovered. About 23 years of age, five feet five inches in height, weighing 105 pounds, and wearing a blue serge dress, she was rather an attractive little girl, black hair and eyes, and a very even row of white teeth, with one gold crown. Information of any kind to her anxious parents would be more than welcomed.
