

The Clergy throughout the Island generally, have through God's mercy been spared to continue their labors, over that portion of the Lord's vineyard which he has committed to their trust, and laboring (as the Committee believe they have) in dependence on His blessing for the conversion of souls, the fruit will surely be found to the praise of His grace.

Nor have the members of our several churches in the various Parishes of the Island, failed to afford evidence of their attachment to the church of their Fathers—their attendance on the ordinances of religion has been punctual and devout, and a good hope is entertained, that many during the past year have been strengthened and refreshed under the preaching of the pure and simple truths of the Gospel.

The Committee are glad to report that the subscriptions to the D. C. S. exceed by several pounds, those of the previous year, and would fain believe, that the more the principles of our Church are understood and her pure and scriptural doctrines are taught, the deeper will be the hold which she will have in the affections of a people ready to receive and cherish the truth.

The Removal of the Missionary from Crapaud to Charlottetown, has left the former place unprovided. Application has been made by the Parishioners, to the Bishop of the Diocese, for a successor to Mr Parnter, but from causes with which the Committee are not acquainted, that section of the Mission field is still without a clergyman.

The Church at Springfield, has been occasionally served by the clergymen from St. Eleanors, New London, and Charlottetown.

The Committee now present abstracts of the Reports from the various Missions.

CHARLOTTETOWN.

The Rev. David FitzGerald reports, that during the past year, there have been 72 Baptisms, 15 Marriages, 34 Funerals, and the accustomed services four times a week, besides occasional extra services. The attendance of the congregation generally on all the means of grace,
