MAY AMEND THE COMMISSION ACT

Matter Referred to at City Hall—Tucker Park Work.

The possibility of amendments to the commission act under which St. John is governed was mentioned at a committee meeting in City Hall this morning, but there was no indication given as to what is in the mind of any one in connection with the matter.

Commissioner Harding reported that he had been unable to procure a copy of the act and moved that copies be printed to include all amendments to date. Mayor Potts suggested that the copies be printed the members of the council might consider the act and bring in proposed amendments. The motion for printing was carried.

No. 5 Trestle. An echo of the trouble over No. 5 trestle was heard. The common clerk reported that there had been filed with him a list of material in the various departments which was out of date and might be disposed of and on motion of Commissioner Wigmore it was decided to sell this material at public auction on Monday, August 18, at 11 o'clock, at the water and sewerage yard.

Commissioner Bullock—Rotten planking and broken and short ends of timber. Commissioner Harding said he would like to have some of it to dump in a place he would point out. Commissioner Bullock asked if this was on private or public land and Commissioner Harding said it was on public land.

Commissioner Frink reported that he would make a recommendation to the council meeting tomorrow in connection with the paving of St. James street and an estimate of the cost. Commissioner Wigmore said that he would bring in recommendations for water renewals in Lenister, Princess and Kennedy streets.

Hotel Work Progresses. Several additional men and two more teams were taken on this morning at clearing away the bank and work of clearing away the bank is being rushed to completion. The steam shovel continues to eat deep into the debris and it is expected that the entire bank will be levelled by the end of this week. Two blasts were fired this morning and two more are scheduled for this afternoon.

RETURNERS FROM HALIFAX. Harry A. Ervin, New Brunswick secretary of the Maritime Amateur Oarsmen's Association, returned this morning from Halifax, where he acted as an official at the big regatta there on Saturday. He was accompanied as far as St. John by Harry Vail, well known rowing coach of the University of Wisconsin, who is returning to Gagetown to spend the remainder of the summer before returning to Madison, Wis. The senior four crew of the Lorne Club won the feature event at Saturday's regatta. This makes three wins out of four starts for this crew which has been coached for a few weeks by Mr. Vail.

PRINCE ARTHUR BRINGS 272. The Eastern Steamship liner Prince Arthur arrived in port this morning direct from Boston with another large passenger list. She brought 272, which is considered good for so late in the season. The majority came to spend vacations in the Maritime Provinces and escape the heat waves which have been sweeping over the eastern states. Among the passengers were William Ruddick of West Somerville, who came on a visit to H. C. Olive, Clarence streets; and John J. Higgins, who was spending a vacation in Boston and New York.

SAVES KIDDIE; DRIVES INTO TREE

J. B. McGrath Swerves From Road—Stolen Car is Found in Ditch.

Faced with the choice of running down a child or risking the lives of himself and others with him in his automobile J. B. McGrath swerved his machine across a ditch and brought up against a tree yesterday morning in the main road near Fair Vale. The child escaped but several members of the party were injured.

An automobile owned by Edward Murtagh, was taken from his premises at 298 Prince Edward street last Saturday night and was recovered yesterday in a ditch at Model Farm. When Mr. Murtagh discovered that his car had been taken he notified the detectives and they sent out warnings. Word was received yesterday that an automobile answering the description was in a ditch at Model Farm. Mr. Murtagh and Detectives Biddiscombe and Kilpatrick went to the scene and found the car. It had been driven head first into the ditch and was quite badly damaged. The automobile was removed to a farm house nearby and was to be repaired and brought to the city today. The thief or thieves have not as yet been apprehended.

WAS WILD DASH Horse in Runaway a Caged Traffic Section of City.

Excitement was occasioned in Mill and Main streets a little before noon today when a horse owned by George Hope and driven by Harry Simms, took fright and ran away. It had been standing near North street and the horse dashed away the sloven struck an express wagon owned by Silas E. Rice and the impact was so great that it bowled the horse and wagon completely over. The frightened animal then dashed along Mill street and other teams and automobiles had narrow escapes. As it proceeded past the junction at Paradise Row and Main street, Traffic effort was made to stop the runaway but was unsuccessful. David Speight ran out a little later and brought the animal to a stop, but not before a large quantity of debris which was loaded in the street. The horse injured one of his hind feet and it was bleeding so profusely that it had to be taken to its stable for treatment.

DRINK ALLEGED IN AUTO CASE

Robert C. Quinn was arrested late on Saturday night on the charge of operating an automobile in Rothesay avenue while under the influence of liquor. He was brought before Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning, but his case was not heard as it is a county matter. It was expected he would be taken before Stipendiary Magistrate Adams this afternoon.

The defendant was alleged to have been driving on the wrong side of the highway when he crashed into an automobile owned and driven by Leo Coyle of Torriburru. Both cars were badly damaged, but fortunately no one was injured.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to Times reporter, "when Charlie Tilley ast me to go down to that there orphans' picnic on Saturday I led no idee what I was gont to see—but when I seen over four hundred kiddies settin' down at them tables in the dinin' hall in the exhibition buildin' I jist wished I could hev a photograph to put on the wall out home fer me an' Hanner to look at. They was all clean an' well-dressed—an' everyone of 'em looked so hearty an' so happy that I thanked the Good Lord fer folks like Charlie Tilley an' them that helped him. One little gal come an' put her arms up to me an' I jist hed to carry her up to a spell. They hed 'em a heap o' good—yes, sir. Some of 'em bright faced little orphans 'ud make their mark in the world some day an' folks ort to think more about 'em all the year round. No orphanage ort to hev to beg fer money no matter 'they're raisin' up men an' women—an' doin' it right, too."
