C. N. R. TRAIN KILLS

ONE, INJURES THREE

Quebec Feb. 15.—A freight train on the transcontinental line of the C. N. R. ran down a rig which was crossing the track about two miles from St. Marie Des Carriers, Port Neuf county, today. George Hamelin, one of the occupants of the vehicle, was killed and three persons were injured.

TWO THOUSAND WAR WIDOWS

Apply to British Minister of Labor for Training

London, Feb. 16.—Two thousand applications have been received by the Ministry of labor from widows of officers and men who wish to be trained for an occupation which shows a likelihood of supplementing their pensions.

One widow wished to be trained in photographic work. A relative had offered to take her into his business when trained, but was unable to give her training himself. The offer was investigated, and she was taught.

A niche for other war widows has been found as home dressmakers. There is a distinct demand for women to make dresses and baby clothes.

Another line which has been developed is that of home cooks who are hoping to supply small restaurants and tea shops with cakes and sweets and small dishes. Some women have been taught how to run little tea shops for themselves.

Occupations which have attracted war widows under this scheme include: Art, dispensing, domestic service, gardening, nursing, gymnastics, hairdressing, house-keeping, health visiting, infant welfare work, kindergarten teaching, massage, midwifery, motor driving, photography, poultry keeping, school teaching.

KING MOVES FOR GENERAL ELECTION

Liberal Leader Says Government Lacks Confidence of Both House and People. Prime Minister Replies.

Ottawa, Feb. 15.—The Liberal opposition proposes to oust the government from power and the government does not propose to be ousted by the opposition. That is the net result of two speeches today in the house of commons by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, the prime minister. The prime minister was quite emphatic in his declaration that the government would carry on and that it would not be stampeded into dissolution by the leader of the opposition or the party press. The Liberal leader moved an amendment to the reply to the speech from the throne as follows:

"We respectfully submit to your excellency that your excellency's present advisers do not possess the confidence of this house or of the country and that their retention of office constitutes a usurpation of the powers of popular government."

Hon. W. S. Fielding seconded the amendment.

The galleries were filled to hear the two leaders. The prime minister tonight belittled the results of the by-elections, which Mr. King dwelt on at considerable length in the afternoon.

Tribute to the Dead.

A tribute to the memory of members of parliament who died during the recess was paid by Premier Meighen as soon as preliminaries were concluded. The prime minister said parliament and the country had sustained a larger number of losses resulting from death during the recess than was usual.

He also referred to the death of the late Right Hon. A. L. Sifton, and J. E. O. Glavin, former member for Yarmouth.

Finally, Mr. Meighen spoke of the death of Col. Harry F. McLeod, formerly member for York-Simcoe (N. B.), and of the part which Colonel McLeod had played in federal, provincial and military affairs. In the house, Mr. Meighen said, Colonel McLeod had a more than usually large number of friends, attracted to him by the loyalty of his friends.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, joined the prime minister in paying tribute to the memory of deceased colleagues and in expressing sympathy with their relatives and friends.

Mr. Meighen Speaks.
James McIsaac, (Kings, P. E. I.) then moved the adoption of the address in reply to the speech from the throne. In opening, he spoke of the high qualities of the new prime minister and praised the work done as premier by Sir Robert Borden. (Owing to the financial measures taken by the government, Canada had emerged from the war in an exceedingly strong position, industrially and financially.)

J. A. McKelvie, (Yale-Carleton, B. C.) was given a hearty reception as he rose to second the speech.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the opposition, was greeted with cheers from the Liberal side of the house. He tendered his sincere compliments to Mr. Meighen and to Mr. McKelvie.

Want of Confidence Motion.
The leader of the opposition then moved the following amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne: "We respectfully submit to your excellency that your excellency's present advisers do not possess the confidence of this house or of the country, and that their retention of office constitutes a usurpation of the powers of popular government."

Hon. Mr. King's amendment was seconded.
