NATIONAL LEAGUE

Playing Season to Open on April 14—Hoyder Speaks of Favor for Nine Game World Series

New York, Dec. 10.—The annual meeting of the board of directors of the National League and the regular meeting of the club owners took place here yesterday.

President, Hoyder, says much of the business remains unfinished, and that the meeting might last through the greater part of this week.

The new board of directors was elected, consisting of Messrs. Stinchman, New York; Grant, Boston; Dreyfus, Pittsburgh; and Veech, Chicago.

It was decided that in future two western and two eastern clubs will be represented on the board and that they would alternate each succeeding year.

The constitution was amended so that any club owner, manager, player or agent convicted of tampering with play or belonging to other league clubs would be fined $10,000. Expulsion may be the penalty for a second offence.

The league voted in favor of a 154 game season for the 1920 season, which will open on Wednesday, April 14, subject to the approval of the American League, which will meet here today.

The training season was extended from four to six weeks prior to the opening of the playing season.

Mr. Hoyder unofficially said that the lengthening of the world series to nine games and the new rules for the division of the receipts seemed to find favor among the club owners.

WHAT IT COSTS.

(Canadian Military Gazette.)

The evidence adduced and official statements submitted to the committee of the House of Commons considering the total expenditure of the war would show that the various forms of re-establishment work to March 31, 1920, will amount approximately to $316,658,726.62, made up as follows:

1. Pensions.....$ 53,536,498.74

2. Gratuities.....155,686,537.98

3. Dependents' transportation fares.....1,916,676.00

4. Department of C. R. ....46,268,103.12

5. Soldier settlement.....156,324.62

6. Labor department.....$126,771,896.88

7. To carry to completion the various classes of re-establishment work now carried on there must be provided after March 31, 1921, an estimated amount of $176,071,896.88, made up as follows:

Soldier settlement.....$126,771,896.88

Department of C. R. ....60,000,000.00

Labor department.....200,000.00

.....$176,971,896.88

This latter figure does not include a sum of approximately $30,000,000 which must be expended annually on pensions.

From these figures it will be noted that the total amount heretofore expended for re-establishment work now carried on amounts to $492,630,623.50, together with $200,000,000 annually for pensions. Yes, war is an expensive business.

HUSBANDS CAN'T GET PAY FOR HOUSEWORK

Newark, N. J., Dec. 10.—Husbands should not expect to be compensated for performing household duties, such as fixing the fence, painting the house or washing the dishes," said Vice-Chancellor Backes.

In signing an order making permanent an injunction restraining George W. Newberry, of Belmar, from interfering with his wife's property, the court issued this statement:

"If I were to allow your claim, any husband who wishes the duties for his wife might ask for $8 a week. This kind of work is considered a gift, but under the law if a wife gives her husband $800, it is a loan. Whether this will be changed after women get the vote, I don't know."

London, Ont., Dec. 10.—When Mrs. Leo Sullivan was killed by an automobile here on Saturday, her mother, Mrs. Thomas Sullivan, of Chicago, was so affected that he feared for her life.

COLONEL HOUSE OUT OF FAVOR?

New York World Gives Reasons For Belief That There is Breach Between Him and Wilson

The New York World prints the following:

Close observers of international and domestic political events believe that the "boyhood of the real Colonel House" is nearing solution.

Established facts, combined with many circumstantial incidents, have convinced these persons that the extraordinary public career of the former ambassador to Mexico is drawing to a close.

The facts that inspire this belief are of recent occurrence, concrete and established. Back of these facts are circumstances buttressed with logical deduction to justify the reasons advanced for the alleged severance of the intimate personal and official ties that existed for seven years between President Wilson and Colonel House, whose career reached its climax in the important part played by him in international negotiations during the war years in Paris throughout the peace conference.

Students of international developments at London, Paris, Rome and Berlin, and of existing conditions at Washington, attach a great deal of importance to the fact that Colonel House has not visited Washington since his departure from the White House in 1913.

The most important facts upon which the opinion that such a breach has actually occurred are as follows:

1.—Although Colonel House returned on Oct. 15 from the post assigned him at London by President Wilson, there is very good reason to believe that information of his departure from the White House and his arrival in this country had not been communicated to the president.

2.—That Colonel House, contrary to his usual practice when in this country, has not visited Washington since his departure from the White House in 1913.

3.—That Colonel House, who returned from abroad under unusual circumstances and was ill for two weeks following his arrival, has since journeyed to Boston and according to his relatives, has been able to "attend to business" as he is said to have been learned by the president's personal secretary.

4.—That for as long as he has been in the household of the president, Colonel House has been able to "attend to business" as he is said to have been learned by the president's personal secretary.

5.—That President Wilson, prior to his departure from Paris in July, personally assigned Colonel House to act as his representative at the United States conference in London.

6.—That Colonel House, who returned from abroad under unusual circumstances and was ill for two weeks following his arrival, has since journeyed to Boston and according to his relatives, has been able to "attend to business" as he is said to have been learned by the president's personal secretary.
