ST. JOHN WOMEN ARE CALLED ON TO HELP EQUIP HOSPITAL SHIP

News having been received today by cable that the British Admiralty has accepted the offer of the Daughters of the Empire of Canada to raise $100,000 to equip a hospital ship for war service, local members of the Daughters of the Empire are starting the campaign today, and will continue it until Thursday.

They have the co-operation of the other women's societies here, and the assistance of the Women's Council. The local Daughters are working on the territory from St. John to Hampton and from St. John to Wolford, and, of course, the city itself.

They are collecting from women, the $100,000 being a gift from the women of Canada. Donations not larger than twenty-five cents are taken, the idea being to make the fund entirely representative of the women of Canada, rich, poor or medium.

In this work of love and mercy, the local women will make very strong endeavor to raise a large sum of money before Thursday in order that St. John's proportion may be creditable to the patriotism of this district.

WHERE COURTESY PAID

Madrid, Aug. 8.—On one of his recent visits to Biarritz King Alfonso had to use one of the ordinary railroad station cabs. Arriving at his destination, the king asked the amount due. "Oh, I recognize you well," said the driver. "For the King of Spain it will be ten francs (20)." His Majesty smiled, glanced at the meter on the vehicle, and handed the driver the sum indicated thereby, plus an ordinary tip. Some days after Alfonso returned to Biarritz he consulted his physician. This time he also made use of a cab, but with a different result. When the meter was turned on the bill was the driver replied: "Your Majesty owes me nothing for this small service which I have had the honor to render him," whereupon the king handed him a new 100 franc (200) bill.
