

ENGLISH SHOE STORE,

NO. 5 GRANVILLE STREET.

W. & G. COOMBS

Would call the attention of the Gentry and Public in Town and Country, to his large and varied assortment of CHILDREN'S, LADIES', and GENTLEMEN'S BOOTS, SHOES and SLIPPERS, of almost every description that can be named, too numerous and extensive to describe, at prices and qualities that cannot fail to suit every purchaser. A call will sufficiently satisfy.

All these goods are made expressly for the Subscriber, under his own direction, and the strictest attention is given to their manufacture, which will be found to give the purchaser the advantage of FRESH GOODS, SUPERIOR MAKE, AND AT UNPRECEDENTED LOW PRICES. The Stock comprises of every description, being AGENT for one of the best companies of manufacturers in the United States, will sell at a very trifling advance on their price, and equally low as the commonest article imported.

English, French and American Fashions.

INDIA RUBBER BOOTS AND SHOES

Large inducements offered to Dealers generally, in the city and country.

All orders punctually attended to.

 In connection with this establishment is a handsome apartment EXPRESSLY FOR THE LADIES.