This statement of our funds will be considered encouraging, as will, also, that which we are enabled to make of the improving state of the School, which is supported among us by the liberal grants of the Provincial Legislature and the English Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. The number of Boys in daily attendance is 202.—The number of Girls 87.—Ten masters have been trained at the School in the last twelve months, who, after having become qualified to diffuse the benefits of the National system of education, have been settled in different stations.

The progress during the past year, of our Sunday Schools, under the most flourishing auspices should not be unnoticed. It is intimately connected with the promotion of Christian Knowledge, which is the main object of this committee. It, also, occasions an increased demand on the part of the young members of our community, for books of elementary instruction, for such works of entertainment as are supplied by the supplemental catalogue of the Parent Society, for Rewards; and for the useful books of which the Lending Library is composed. There are at present assembled, each Sunday, an average of one hundred children of each sex.

Your Committee cannot do better than close this Report, with a portion of the concluding sentence of the last Report of the Parent Society.
