The Seven Sleepers.

A VISIT TO THE CAVE IN THE HIBAK VALLEY, ON THE AFGHAN FRONTIER.

On the 2nd inst., at the R. C. Cathedral, by Rev. J. J. Walsh, Ed. H. Conroy, of St. John, to Miss J. A. Worden, of Queens County. On the 4th inst., at St. Peter's Church, in the city of Portland, by Rev M. Oates, Edward Bourke, to Teresa G. Conway, moth of Portland. On the 5th uit, at St. Augustine's church, Highbury, New Park, London, Eng., by the Rev. Gordon Cath-rop, vicar, George & Pearson, of Montreal, to Amelia V. Ackles, of Biver-Hebert, Nova Scotis. (From the Pall Mall Gazette.) Holding our lighted candles between the palings of the wooden screen which debars nearer approach to the alsepers, we were shown some cloths on the floor, apparently a rough common sheet with a dark-colored fringed cloth above it, which was said to cover the ## sleepers. We asked if it was allowed to look Deaths.

sleepers. We asked it it was allowed to look under the cloth, but that, they said, was im-possible. Even they themselves, they said, knew not what was there. One man had once tried to look and was imme-mediately struck blind; but that it we here a "there (consting in the direction) was mediately struck blind; but that if we doubted, "there (pointing in the direction) was the dog and the deer and hawk." Holding the candles to the right we could then see indis-tinctly something looking like dried bodies of some animals propped against the wall. They were very small. The first, said to be the dog, was about a foot in height, and the deer a few inches higher, but it was impossible to say in such light what animals theywore. The bones of the legs were visible-in fact, the dog's legs had fallen off, which rather told against its be-ing asleep, but the .body seemed to be covered with dry skin; and yet, en the strength of these relics, some twenty families of Sayeds are kept in comfort and live here on the contribu-tions of ipligrims i with, in addition, as much land as they require free of any rent and taxes.
