ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEB. 21, 1910.

IN ALBERTA.

There are rumors of a political upheaval in Alberta, caused primarily by Premier Rutherford's alleged secret policy regarding the Alberta and Waterways Railway, and incidentally by the dissatisfaction of two or three members of the House with things in general.

Mr. Cushing has since devoted some attention to the Waterways Railway and declares that his resignation was due to disagreement with the Premier on this subject.

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING. The majority of St. John churches include in their choir paid singers. These men and women are engaged in order that the congregations may worship by proxy, and that they may enjoy something in the nature of sacred concerts at every service.

It would be a splendid thing if St. John churches could arrange and there is no good reason why they should not drop their paid choirs, and engage for a short time capable leaders who would develop the habit of congregational singing.

Mr. Sifton appears to have given a very satisfactory interview to the morning papers without saying much of anything. He, however, hand-d out some good advice on the conservation of forests, etc.

Manitoba lady-help shot the son of her employer. Probably objected to working in a house where there were children.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

If all the children of this decade could be thoroughly grounded in the answer to the question, "When is a joke not a joke?" I think that rowdism and vandalism in the next decade would probably decrease considerably.

There is a certain exasperating class of persons for whom I have been sharpening my pencil—or to speak more modernly—warming up my typewriter, for some time.

The Lighter Side of Life

THE BUTCHER'S SIDE OF IT.

Steaks, steaks, steaks! All cut and ready to sell; But never a soul comes into my shop O' Beef Trust! Is this why?

But ever the hungry throngs Go surging past my door, And no one ventures to step inside And stand on my sawdust floor.

For thousands and thousands have sworn They'll sooner starve than eat A morsel of meat from my shop O' Beef Trust! Is this why?

Beef, beef, beef! It's hard to collect the bill; But oh, for the touch of a vanished trade, And the sound of a phone that is still.

ONE OLD OX.

This is a game of memory, in which you pay forfeits for mistakes and also for laughing.

The players sit in a circle. One begins my saying, solemnly, "One old ox opening oysters, two tired turtles trotting to Trenton; This goes round the circle. The next repetition is, "One old ox opening oysters, two tired turtles trotting to Trenton; three tams tigers taking tea; This is repeated by each one, always beginning at "One old ox," adding a new alliteration each time.

THE FRIGHTENED KITTENS.

"A camera's coming," said Jack to Jill. "They'll want us both to sit awfully still."

"Good gracious," said Jack, "don't get such a fright! It's only the puppy dog coming in sight."

Old Gent—"Have you vanishing ink?" Tradesman—"Yes. Gave up as you are of no breach of promise suits!"

Old Gent—"Oh, no; going to give my daughter a cheque for a thousand pounds as a wedding present."

A PARADOXICAL REPLY.

"Doctor, do you think eye-glasses will alter my appearance?" inquired Mrs. Gunson anxiously.

"I shall at least expect them to improve your looks," replied the physician.

THE ALTERNATIVE.

"Let's go to the theatre."

"I've nothing war."

"Then we'll go to the opera."

Household Hints

Do not destroy any net from old surplus. Cut into squares of desired size and stitch together, and they will make excellent washcloths.

Be careful never to use too much butter in cake. Use a scant amount rather than what the recipe calls for, and it will save many a poor cake.

When frying doughnuts, French fried potatoes or anything of the kind, drain on brown paper and you will find the grease drawn out into the paper.

To wash water bottles or any vase having a long neck, fill with clear, hot water and tiny bits of torn paper.

Shake well and rinse in clear water. Remains served with French dressing is tasty. If grated pineapple cheese is added it improves the flavor as well as the appearance of the dish.

Cold water, a teaspoonful of ammonia and soap will remove any machine grease when other means would not answer on account of colors running. Don't handle the dough any more than necessary when making biscuits, doughnuts and cookies. The more you handle it the tougher it will become.

Wipe off screens with a duster each morning and treat with a soft brush. The heating should be done lightly in order that the wire be not bulged.

If gilt frames are coated with copal varnish it will preserve them and they can be washed with water without removing the lustre from the gilt.

A half can of tomatoes can be used to make tomato soups. Season with salt and pepper, and butter, strain and add a cup of cream. Serve with salted crackers.

Opals are strongly in vogue. Neckties are getting higher, toes narrower. French tailored suits are all very severe.

With the Chanticleer race comes wings glow. All the best authorities predict a "white summer."

Neckties after a long absence are high in fashion. Pockets of old cut are prominent on elaborate suits.

Velvet stiped volles are among the season's novelties. Sport coats are but slightly shorter than the winter ones.

Rosettes of soft satin ribbon are much used for trimming gowns. Belts appear everywhere and on everything that has a waistline.

Embroidery is the strong note of the season in spring and summer frocks. The fly of the valley is a favorite design for embroidered silk hosiery.

Colored linings are returning for use with the sheers of Swiss fabrics. Trim some of the earliest Tuscan hats, black velvet slippers will be worn with the dainty lingerie frocks of the spring.

Molders in the heavy weights is making up great numbers of children's wash dresses.
