First Annual Banquet of Agricultural Societies

The first annual banquet of the Agricultural Societies of the County of Madawaska was held at the New Royal Hotel on Sunday evening.

Toasts were proposed and responded to, as follows: To the King, proposed by Edward Rice, Vice-President of the Agricultural Societies of the County.

To the County of Madawaska, proposed by Elias Daigle, Warden of the County and President of the Agricultural Society of St. Basile.

To the Agriculturists, proposed by Rev. C. J. Cyr, Parish Priest of St. Anne.

To the Guest of Honor, Mr. Harvey Mitchell, proposed by Mr. George Mitchell and responded to by Mr. Mitchell.

Father Levesque, who has recently been inducted as Parish Priest of St. Basile, also made a few remarks.

The banquet was the first of its kind that has been held, but it will be an annual affair as the success of the first demonstrated that such occasions serve a useful purpose to the community.

Among those present other than the representatives of the various agricultural societies were: Rev. Father Conroy, Cyr, C. Michaud, and Levesque.

Mr. P. H. Laporte and Dr. P. C. Laporte, Chaire; Dr. L. Violette, Pius Michaud, Thaddeus Brien, County Secretary and several members of the Edmundston Board of Trade.

Ruest - Pelletier

A wedding of great local interest was held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Monday morning at 8:00 o'clock when Yvette Pelletier, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Pelletier, was united in marriage to Rinaldo Ruest, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Ruest.

COLLISION ON ST. JACQUES ROAD

A Ford Coupe driven by Andrew England and a Plymouth Sedan owned and driven by Pete Ouellette, both of Edmundston, collided on a curve near St. Jacques at about five o'clock Monday morning.

Mr. England was proceeding to Blue River and Mr. Ouellette was coming towards Edmundston. They met on a curve and the Plymouth hit the Ford on the left side and caused it to leave the road and turn over two or three times.

SPECIAL MEETING OF BOARD OF TARDE HELD

SMUGGLING AND LICENSING OF NON-RESIDENTS CONSIDERED.

A special meeting of the Edmundston Board of Trade was held at the Town Hall on Friday evening with the President, Hon. J. E. Michaud, in the chair.

The merchants of the town were well represented at the meeting and discussed fully the smuggling situation in the town and County.

They also discussed the licensing of non-resident persons who are selling meats, vegetables and other articles in the town and County.

Editor's Note - Investigation discloses the fact that the Town has authority to pass a bylaw requiring the above mentioned persons to pay a license before doing business in the Town.
