reriy dividend 1.34 per cent, payable July 2 to record June 15.

At a meeting of Riordan Company shareholders, a committee to represent them in conferring with the committee which P. Jones is chairman, was appointed, a member of which was W. D. Ross of Toronto. In hits remarks Mr. Jones made it clear that Riordan Company could look for no revenue of consequence from subsidiaries and that company would operate on reduced scale during present year. He urged the shareholders to subscribe to the bond issue being offered them. An appeal by Mr. Ross of Toronto that shareholders present should immediately take up subscriptions was agreed to with gratifying results. Speaking of amount of cash needed to clear up the company's obligations at 100 cents on the dollar, Mr. Jones placed the amount at $13,524,00. I. W. Killam, President Royal Securities Corporation, in reply to point-blank question, said that he received for his turnover to the Riordon Company of timber mitts $1,000.
