POOR DOCUMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 25, 1901.

NEWS OF THE WORLD

THE HAPPENINGS OF WEEK IN BRIEF.

Despatches from points of Interest in different parts of the World-Domestic and Foreign events-The Dark and Sunny Side of Life.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 21—All the switchmen in the Lehigh Valley railroad yards in this city struck tonight. In consequence it is said a number of engineers and firemen had been made idle. The strike of the switchmen although not directly connected with that of the machinists arose from a situation created by the going out of the latter.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 22.—A trip to Ningara Falls as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ely; a dinner in their honor and a visit to the exposition grounds to view the illumination this evening, made up the programme for the entertainment of Vice-cogramme for the entertainment of Vice resident Roosevelt and his party today London, May 21.—(Special)—It has been found impossible to comply with the wishes of relatives of Archbishop Lewis Abbey. Interment took place at Hawk-hurst, Kent, this afternoon.

New York, May 21 .- The Commercia Advertiser says there is good authority for the statement that S. R. Callaway will receive a salary of $100,000 a year as president of the American Locomotive. Company and that $500,000 of the company's stock was given to him as a bonus.

Vienna, May 21 .- The dual estimate the army and navy get $68,513,708. The balance will be made up by the two por-Manila, May 21—E. C. Lawrence, formerly a private in the 33rd Volunteer Infantry, has been accused of forging the signature of Captain Slavens, the insular disbursing officer to certain cheques purporting to be payable to General MacArthur. On the backs of the cheques were forged endorsements of General MacArthur to General Shafter and E. C. Lawrence.

New York, May 21.—In the suit of Rudyard Kipling against George Putnam's Sons for infringement of copyright on the Outward Bound edition of Kipling's works Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court, took the case from the jury, directing a non-suit. This decides the suit in favor of the Putnams.

New York, May 21.—Givanno Buttaca-volla was convicted of having buried a baby, of which he is the reputed father, at Hastings several weeks ago. The young mother of the child said her tears alone prevented the man from splitting the child's head open with a hatchet. The Stonington, Conn., May 21-The school er Reporter, of St. John, N. B., and bound for that port, with coal, struck Lattimer's Reef, off Fishers Island this afternoon, and is in a dangerous position. The wrecking tug will be sent from this city at high tide tonight, and if the weather continues fair it is thought that the vessel may be floated.

Frankfort, May 21.—The Frankfurfer Zeitung publishes a despatch from Moscow saying that the government a few days ago ordered the telegraph department not to accept any more telegrams of sympathy addressed to Count Tolstoi, who was recently excommunicated by the Holy Synod. Since then many such telegrams have been rejected. Frankfort, May 21.-The Frankfurter Dublin, May 21 .- At a banquet of the Dublin, May 21.—At a banquet of the Law Society Saturday Earl Cadogan, the lord lieutenant, made an authoritative announcement of King Edward's wish to visit Ireland as soon as possible. He added that he was able to testify personally to the king's desire during his reign to de all he can to promote the prosperity of the country.

New York, May 21.—After walking about with a fractured skull for two weeks before he felt ill-effects from the injury, Adolph Johnson, of Brooklyn, died in the Long Island College Hospital today and Michael Thorpe, a liquor dealer, was arrested charged with giving Johnson the blow that caused his death. In a scuffle Thorpe, at is said, knocked Johnson down with a hung starter.

Manila, May 21.-The insurgents, today, made an unsuccessful attack upon the village of Nacarlan, in Laguna prov-General MacArthur has ordered reports from all the civil departments, prepara tory to his own final report.

The commission has prepared a bill to create a new weather bureau. This bill practically continues and subsidia present Jesuit observatory in Manua.

New York, May 21—It is said that Admiral Schiey, who arrived today, broke down in a speech which he delived at the dinner of Captain Englebart, of the Kaiser Williem Der Grosse on Monday night. After remarking that it had been an anxious trip for him on account of the alarming illness of his son, the admiral announced in faltering tones that this was his last trip at sea in view of his approaching retirement. Then the vesteran broke down and wept.

Many at the table, Americans and Germinvans, wept in sympathy with the admiral.

San Francisco, May 21-The convale she is fast regaining her normal strength She was able to sit up today and read the papers. So marked is her improvement that it is very probable the presidential party, will start for Washington next Sat

President McKinley today reviewed nearly 50,000 school children of this city Washington, May 21.—The typewritten copy of her confession was taken to Mrs. Bonine today for the purpose of having her swear to it, as she was not under cath when she made the statement yesterday. Mrs. Bonine, after making the confession, had consulted a lawyer and he had advised her to avoid anything in the nature of assisting the prosecution. When the confession was presented to her today she positively refused to make the affiliativity.

Ohicago, May 21—One man was killed, one fatally injured and six others hurt this afternoon by the falling of a part of the sidewalk in front of Central Music Hall, which is being demonstrated to make way for an adlight of Central Music Hall, which is being demonstrated to make way for an adlight of Central Music Hall with an electric light wire while working in a sewer on the exposition grounds. Buffalo, May 22.—Richard Garvey, of Yokohama, May 21.-Three Russian officers have been sentenced, in default, to six months imprisonment for mapping Nagasaki harbor in the vicinity of the fortifications.

Tucson, Ar., May 22-One of the greatest strikes of gold in Arizona for years is reported from the Galliuro Mountains, 18 San Pedro river. Two prospectors have brought in samples of rich ore. They say the ledge is 200 feet wide, and that the ore runs as high as $10,000 to the ton. New York, May 22.—According to a Herald despatch from Paris, J. Pierpout Morgan has bought outright the celebrated collection of art curiosities gathered together during the last 23 years by M. Mannheim, of Paris. "It is perfectly correct," said M. Mannheim, when told that the self-had been reported about old that the sale had been reported about

New York, May 22.-Three little children Tuesday night discovered the head-less body of an infant lying beside a grave in Old Washington cemetery, Brooklyn.
So great was the children's horror that they dared not mention it to their parents until tonight. The body was that of Rosie Foss, eight months old, of this city, buried last December. No trace of Mantia, May 21—E. C. Lawrence, formerly a private in the 33rd Volunteer Infantry, has been accused of forging the signature of Captain Slavens, the insular disbursing officer to certain cheques purporting to be payable to General MacArthur. On the backs of the cheques were forged endorsements of General MacArthur to General Shatter, and E. C. Lawrence.

New York, May 21.—In the suit of Rudyard Kipling against George Putnam's of the association.

Vienna, May 22-The delegations were re Vienna, May 22—The delegations were re-ceived by Emperor Francis Joseph at the Hofburg with the usual ceremonics. Reply-ing to the address presented, the emperor emphasized the "continuance of the unal-tered cordial relations of all the empires allied with us" and "the friendly relations of all the powers" deducting "from this gratifying political situation the just hope that passes we continue to be fountained." that peace w... continue to be maintained." The remainder of his majesty's speech was Oaxaca, Tex., May 21—The Mexican government will immediately send an archeological expedition to Chan Santa Cruz, ell into the hands of the government to have an important bearing on the early history of the Maya tribe have already who are to be sent there under direction of the government will continue these in teresting researches. Boston, May 22-Miss Fawn Davis, o

Boston, May 22—Miss Fawn Davis, of Bridgewater, who was shot by Herbert E. Blood of Holbrook, at the residence of Geo. F. Nickerson, her stepfather, is not yet out of danger, but is improving.

Dr. Whitmarsh stated that Miss Davis might recover, and that the chances were about even.

Blood passed a comfortable night. Physicians had made an effort to first the bullet, which is supposed to be lodged in his head, but they have been unable to locate it.

Blood was arrigned in the Brockton police court on a charge of murderous assault, and was held in $5,000 until next Friday, awaiting the turn in the condition of Miss Davis. ing the turn in the condition of Miss Davis.

Portland, Me., May 22—The annual meting of the Maine Eclectic Medical Society was held in this city today. The forenoon was devoted to preliminary business, reading of reports of councillors and discussion of reports of the secretary and treasurer. The reports showed the organization to be in a prosperous condition. The afternoon was given over to addresses and papers on current topics. The election of officers resulted: President, Dr. Frank W. Snell, Dennysville; vice-president, Dr. Geo. H. Weeks, Richmond; recording secretary, Dr. Henry Reney, Bid-leford; corresponding secretary, Dr. William C. Hatch, New Sharon; treasurer, Dr. M. T. Marble, Gardiner; councillors, Dr. A. Fossett, Portland; Dr. W. C. Hatch, New Sharon; Dr. A. H. Flower, Boston,

Boston, May 21.—Secretary J. F. Masters, of the Canadian Club, is in receipt of the following cablegram from Lon-members of the Canadian Club of Boston my sincere thanks for their kind consideration in tendering me a reception and conquet in June next. I have the highest appreciation of this signal honor intended me by the club, and while regretting much that my engagements do not per-mit of my being in Boston in June, I trust to have an opportunity at some future time of expressing in person my grateful I also deem it a great compliment and privilege to be enrolled as an honorary ember of your club."

(Signed) "STRATHCONA." London, May 20.-The Archbishop of Conterbury would like to see all the clergy of the Church of England married. Preaching in the Hampstead Parish church, in aid of the Queen Victoria fund, he remarked that the experience with an un clergy, for a clergyman's fanrily often did as much good as he did. The public must, however, be prepared to pay more for a married than for an unmarried min-

In enforcing the insufficiency of many clerical incomes, the primate declared the poverty of the clergy not only rendered the proper performance of their duty impossible at times, but also prevented many men from entering the ministry because of the poor prospect afforded by

REV. DR. TALMAGE HAS NO USE FOR STRATGHT-JACKET RELIGION. DON'T SUPPRESS SPORTFULNESS

Depraving in the Line of Amusement, and How to Know It,

Washington, May 19.—This dis-course of Dr. Talmage is in accord with all innocent hilarities, while it reprehends amusements that belittle

There are two armies encamped by the pool of Gibeon. The time hangs heavily on their hands. One army proposes a game of sword fencing. Nothing could be more healthful and The other army accepts the challenge. Twelve men against 12 men, the sport opens. But something went adversely. Perhaps one With an electric light wire with work ing in a sewer on the exposition grounds. Buffalo, May 22.—Richard Garvey, of Worcester, Mass., died today from injuries received by being struck by a locomotive in the Lackawanna yards.

Thing went adversely. Perhaps one of the swordsmen got an unlucky clip or in some way had his ire aroused and that which opened in sportfulness ended in violence, each one taking his contestant by the hair and ing his contestant by the hair with the sword thrusting him in the side, so that that which opened in innocent fun ended in the massacre of all the 24 sportsmen. Was there structive?

What of a worldly nature is more

important and strengthening and innocent than amusement, and yet what has counted more victims? have no sympathy with a straightworld to me, and I propose to do all I never could keep step to a dead A book years ago says that a Christian man has a right to some amusements. For instance, if he comes home at night weary from his work, and, feeling weary from his work, and, feeling the need of recreation, puts on his slippers and goes into his garret and walks lively round the floor several times there can be no harm in it. I believe the church of God made a great mistake in trying to suppress the sportfulness of youth and drive the sportfulness of youth and you have the sportfulness of youth and youth and you have the sportfulness of youth and you have the sportfulness of youth and you have the youth and you have the sportfulness of youth and you have the and walks lively round the floor several times there can be no harm in it. I believe the church of God made a great mistake in trying to suppress the sportfulness of youth and drive out from men their love of amusement. If God ever implanted anything in us, he implanted this desire. But instead of providing for this demand of our nature the church of God has for the main part ignored the wandering son, and then the combining in the sportfulness of youth and drive son had been off in sinful indulgences. His comrades were bringing him home. They carried him to the church."

As I sat in the pulpit and saw his body coming up through the aisle I felt as if I could weep tears of blood. I told the people that day: "This man had his virtues, and a good many of them. He had his faults, and a good many of them. But if there is any man in this audience who is without sin, let him cast the own. They were waiting for the wandering son, and then the com-God has for the main part ignore it. As in a riot the mayor plants a battery at the end of the street thing is cut down that happens to stand in the range, the good as well as the bad, so there are men in the church who plant their batteries condemnation and fire away indis-criminately. Everything is condemned. But Paul the apostle commends those who use the world without abusing it, and in the natural world God has done everything to please and amuse us. In poetic figure we sometimes speak of natural objects as being in pain, but it is a mere fancy. Poets say the clouds weep, that the winds sigh, but they never did have any trouble, and that the storm howls, but it never lost its temper. The world is a rose and the universe a garland.

And I am glad to know that in all our cities there are plenty of places where we may find elevated moral entertainment. But all honest men and good women will agree with me in the statement that one of the worst things in these cities is corrupt amusement. Multitudes have gone down under the blasting influence never to rise. If we may judge of what is going on in many of the places of antisements by the pictures on board fences and in many of the show windows, there is not a much lower depth of profligacy to reach. At Naples, Italy, they keep such pictures locked up from indiscriminate inspection. Those pictures were exhausted from the statement opens! The young man says: "Now I am off for a good time. Never mind economy. I'll get money somehow. What a fine road! What a beautiful day for a ride! Crack the whip, and over the turnpike! Come, boys, fill high your glasses. Drink! Long life, health, plenty of rides just like this!" Hardworking men hear the clatter of the hoofs and look up and say: "Why, I wonder where those fellows get their inspection. Those pictures were ex- wonder where those fellows get their for public gaze. If the effrontery of bad places of amusement in hanging gay men life is a thrill and exciteout improper advertisements of what they are doing night by night grows worse in the same proportion, in 50 chain ji years some of our modern cities will cheeks I project certain principles by which you may judge in regard to any amusement or recreation, finding or wrong.

I remark, in the first place, that you can judge of the moral character of any amusement by its healthful result or by its baleful reaction. There are people who seem made up tion of multiplication tables and statistics. If you show them an ex- arm strong enough to bring up the quisite picture they will begin to discuss the pigments involved in the coloring. If you show them a beautiful rose they will submit it to a where business and philanthropy rest while on their way to stirring achievements. Amusements are mereachievements. Amusements are mereachievements. Amusements are mereachievements. er. They have no rebound in their nature. They never do anything more than smile. There are no great tides of feeling surging up from the depths of their soul in billow after depths of their soul in their soul and the blossoming of the hammers. Alas for the man who spends his life in laboriously doing nothing, his days in hunting up lounging places and loungers, his them by contract and made a bungling job out of it. But, blessed be God, there are people in the world the brook, with no time to pray or who have bright faces and whose life is a song, an anthem, a paean of victory. Even their troubles are like the vine that crawl up the side of a great tower on the top of which the sunlight sits and the sqit airs of summer hold perpetual carnival. They are the people you like to have come to your house; they are the people I like to have come to your house; they are the people I like to have come to work does not know how to play. If they are the people you like to have come to your house; they are the people I like to have come to work does not know how to play. If they are the people you like to have they are the people I like to have come to work does not know how to play. If they are the people you like to have they are the work and brains with which to think. The amusements

Now, it is these exhilarant and sympathetic and warm hearted people that are most tempted to pernicious amusements. In proportion as helmsman, in proportion as a horse world! is gay it wants a stout driver, and

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Taklots

and the description of the second sec

these people of exuberant nature will do well to look at le reaction of all their amusement. If an amusement sends you home at night and you rise up in the morning not cause your duty drags you from your ought not to have been. There are amusements that send a man next day to his work with his eyes bloodshot, yawning, stupid, nauscated, and they are group kinds of anuscated. They are entertainments that give a man disgust with the drudgery of life, with tools because they because they are not robes, with cattle because they are not infuriated bulls of the arena. If any amusement sends you home longing for or deprave; text, II Samuel ii, 14, 'Let the young men now arise and play before us.' life of romance and thrilling adventure, love that takes poison and shoots itself, moonlight adventures and hairbreadth escapes, you may depend upon it that you are the sacrificed victim of unsanctified pleasure. Our recreations are intend-our physical strength you may come to the conclusion that they are obthan attendance upon amusements that are full of innuendo and low suggestion. The young man enters. At first he sits far back, with his hat on and his coat collar up, fearful that somebody there may know him. Several nights pass on. He takes off his hat earlier and puts his coat collar down. The blush that first came true then and is true now—that that into his cheek when anything indecent was enacted comes no more to his cheek. Farewell, young have probably started on the long road which ends in consummate destruction. The stars of hope will go out one by one, until you will ed to build us up, and if they pull us down as to our moral or as to Still further, those amusements are wrong which lead you into expendi-ture beyond your means. Money ture beyond your means. Money spent in recreation is not thrown away. It is all folly for us to come from a place of amusement feeling that we have wasted our money and time. You may by it have made an investment worth more than the transaction that yielded you dreds of thousands of dollars. But ed threw the prodigal headlong into the doorway, crying: "There he is, drunk as a fool! Ha, ha!". When they cannot earn, and then they steal what they cannot borrow. First they go into embarrassment and then into lying and then into theft, and when a man gets as far on as that he does not stop short of the penihe land where there are not victims of unsanctified amusements.

Merchant, is there a disarrangement in your accounts? Is there a leakage in your money drawer? Did not the cash account come out right last night? I will tell you. There is a young man in your store wan-dering off into bad amusements. The salary you give him may meet lawful expenditures, but not the sinful indulgences in which he has entered, and he takes by theft that which you do not give him in lawful sal-

How brightly the path of unre-We have to toil and drudge. They do nothing." ment. They stare at other people and ment. They stare at other people and in turn are stared at. The watch chain jingles. The cup foams. The cheeks flash. The eyes flash. The midnight hears their guffaw. They swagger. They jostle decent men off the sidewalk. They take the name of God in vain. They parody the hymn they learned at their mother's knee, and to all pictures of coming disaster they cry out, "Who cares!" and to the counsel of some Christian friend, "Who Your sports are merely means to an end. They are alleviations and helps. The arm of toil is the only post morten examination of a flow-ly the vines that grow about the an billow of reverberating laughter. nights in seeking out some gaslighted foolery! The man who always has with which to think. The amusements house. If you but touch the hem of of life are merely the orchestra play ing while the great tragedy of life plunges through its five acts — infancy, childhood, manhood, old age and death. Then exit the last earthly opportunity. Enter the over-whelming realities of an eternal

I go further and say that all these Russia's Imperial Council.

St. Petersburg, May 21.-Celebrating the centenary of the imperial council, yester-day, the czar, in an autograph letter, promised to re-organize the council on modern lines, so as to facilitate the transaction of business-into bad company. If you go to any with the intemperate, with the clean, with the abandoned, however well they may be dressed, in the name of God cuit it They will de-spoil your nature, They will under-mine your moral character. They will drop you when you are destroyed. They will not give one cent to support your children when you are dead. They will weep not one tear at your burial. I was summoned to the deathbed of a friend. I hastened. I entered the room. I found him, to my surprise, lying in full everyday dress on top of the couch. I put out my hand. He grasped it, excitedly and said, "Sit down, Mr. Talmage, right there." I sat down. He said: "Last night I saw my mother, who has been dead 20 years, and she sat just where you sit now. It was no dream. I was wide awake. There saw her just as plainly as I see you Wife, I wish you would take these strings off me. There are strings spun all around my body. I wish you would take them off me." I saw it was delirium. "Oh," replied his wife, noxious.

There is nothing more depraving there is nothing there, there is nothing there.' He went on and said: "Just where you sit, Mr Talmage, my mother sat. She said to me, Henry, I do wish you would do better,' I got out of bed, put my arms around her and said: 'Mother, I want to do better. I have been try-ing to do better. Won't you help me to do better? You used to help me. No mistake about it, no delusion. the spectacles, just as she used to look 20 years ago. But I do wish you would take these strings away They annoy me so! I can hardl talk. Won't you take them away? I knelt down and prayed, consciou of the fact that he did not realize what I was saying. I got up. I said "Good-bye. I hope you will be better soon." He said, "Good-bye, good-That night his soul went up to the God who gave it. Arrangements were made for the obsequies. Some said "Don't bring him in the church: he is too dissolute." "Oh," I said, "bring him. He was a good friend of mine while he was alive, and I shall stand by him now that he is dead. Bring him to the church."

who is without sin, let him cast the first stone at this coffin lid," On one The m pale from exhausting disease, some of them flushed until it seemed as if the fires of iniquity flamed through the cheek and crackled the lips. They were the men who had done work. They were the men who had bound him hand and foot. They had kindled the fires. They had poured the wormwood and gall into that orphan's cup. Did they weep?

No. Did they sigh repentingly? No.
Did they say, "What a pity that such a brave man should be slain?" No, no; not one bloated hand was lifted to wipe away a tear from a bloated cheek. They sat and looked at the coffin like vultures gazing at the carcass of a lamb whose heart they had ripped out. I cried in their ears as plainly as I could, "There are a God and a judgment day." Did they tremble? Oh, no, no. They went back from the house of God, and that night, though their victim lay in Oakwood cemetery, I was told that they blasphemed, and they drank, and they gambled, and there was not an eternal catastrophe.

Again, any amusement that gives you a distaste for domestic life is bad. How many bright domestic circles have been broken up by sin-ful amusements! The father went off, the mother went off, the child went off. There are to-day fragments before me of blasted hous holds. Oh, if you have wandered away, I would like to charm you back by the sound of that one word, "home" Do you not know that you "home." Do you not know that you have but little more time to give to domestic welfare? Fo you not see, father, that your children are soon to go out into the world, and all the influence for good you are to have over them you must have now? Death will break in on your conjugal relations, and alas if you have to stand over the grave of one who perished from your neglect.

Ah, my friends, there is an hour coming when our past life will probably pass before us in review. will be our last hour. If from our death pillow we have to look back and see a life spent in Sinful amusement, there will be a dart that will strike through our soul sharper than the dagger with which Virginius slew his child. The memory of the past will make us quake like Macbeth.
The iniquities of rioting through which we have passed will come upon us, weird and skeleton as Meg Merand take the remaining drop of blood, and upon our. last opportunity for repentance and our st chance for heaven the curtain will drop forever.

Many Killed by Avalanche.

Milan, May 21.-The village of Lurenza has been partially destroyed by an avalanche. The number of fatalities is not yet known but already 15 corpses have Committee Recommends Aldermen for Two Years.

FREEDOM OF THE CITY.

It Was Also Decided to Recommend That This Be Conferred Upon All St. John Boys Who Fought in South Africa -- Matter of Granite

A meeting of the common council committee on the mayor's inaugural address was held yesterday afternoon. His Worship Mayor Daniel presided and there was a good attendance of the aldermen. It was decided to take up each subject touched on in the address.

The first subject was that regarding the term of an alderman in office and it was decided to recommend that the term be two years instead of one.

two years instead of one.
It was decided that the freedom of the Carriages, city be conferred on all of the returned soldiers who live in St. John and who erved in the war in South Africa.

There was a lengthy discussion on the proposition to enlarge the reservoir at Little River and improve the piping in the city. It was finally decided that the water and sewerage board be asked to prepare a plan for the carrying out of these improvements.

The matter of laying out of grarate pavements on some of the streets was con idered and the council will be asked to request the director to submit an opinion as to the best manner to work in the lay ing of this kind of streets in different parts of the city. The meeting then ad-

Weddings.

Rev. James Woods, C.SS.R., officiated at 7.30 o'clock yesterday morning at the marriage in St. Peter's church of Mr. Bernard Walsh to Miss Margaret Harrington, the wandering son, and then the coinrades as soon as the door was opened threw the prodigal headlong into the doorway, crying: "There he is, drunk as a fool! Ha, ha!". When men go into amusements that they cannot afford, they first borrow what they cannot earn, and then they Oh, her countenance haunts me to-day, like some sweet face looking upon us through a horrid dream. On the other side of the pulpit were the men who had destroyed him. There they sat, hard visaged, some of them they sat, hard visaged, some of them did justice to a sumptuous repast. The newly married couple will make their home on Waterloo street. The bride's presents were many and costly. Yesterday afternoon the employes of the Colwel Candy Company presented Mr. Colwell their young foreman, with an easy chair. The directors of the company also gave him a valuable present.

John H. Harding.

Much regret was expressed yesterday when news spread that John H. Hardin was dead. The end came at 11 o'clock after some months' illness. Mr. Harding was born in this city on January 2, 1818 and was therefore a little more than 83 years of age. He was the son of Mr. Thomas Harding, one of St. John's leading merchants, who served 45 years at the council board and very aceptably filled the mayor's chair. His grandfather, Mr. William Harding, was general the Lordina. night, though their victim lay in Oakwood cemetery, I was told that they blasphemed, and they drank, and they gambled, and there was not one less customer in all the houses of iniquity. This destroyed man was a Samson in physical strength. But, I ship the strength of the Shipnesan and in company with the same of the Loyal strength. But, I ship the same of the Loyal strength of the strength of the same of the Loyal strength. But, I ship the same of the Loyal strength of the same of the Loyal strength. But, I ship the same of the Loyal strength of the Loyal strength of the Loyal strength. But, I ship the same of the Loyal strength o Samson in physical strength, but belilah sheared him, and the Philistines of evil companionship dug his eyes out and threw him into the prisiper of the prisip on of evil habits. But in the hour of his death he rose up and took hold of the two pillared curses of God against drunkenness and uncleanness and threw himself forward until down upon him and his companions there came the thunders of an eternal enterprise. he was retired and succeeded by his son, Mr. Fred J. Harding. In 1846 Mr. Harding was married to Miss Mary Spurr, of Bridgetown, sister of Mr. J. DeW. Spurr, and in 1896 they electrated their golden wedding. Four children survive: Messrs. James S., Charles S., and Frederick J., of this city, and Mrs. J. T. McBride, of Montreal. Mr. Harding was a very active regulator of Geomain Street Bautist church.

Genuine

Carter's Little Liver Pills. Must Bear Signature of

fery small and as sony to take as sugari CARTER'S FOR HEADLCHES. FOR BILIDUSBESS. FOR TORPID LIVER. FOR CONSTIPATION. FOR SALLOW SKIN. FOR THE COMPLEXION

CURE SICK NEADACHE

1000 · 1

Doctors Like It.

For over twenty years Vapo-Cresolene has received the unqua support of the medical profession; we feel very proud of this. Physicians verywhere realize the importance of this direct way of treating all throat affections. Put some Cresolene in the vaporizer, light lamp beneath, and then breathe-in the healing and germ destroying vapor. It is the doctor's prescription now for whooping cough, frequently curing it in a few days.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywher. Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer amamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of resolene, complete, $2.50; extra supplies of Cresone 25 cents and 50 cents libustrated booklet contain cripical angle treatment by g physicians' testimonials free upon request, Vaponessolene Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

CARLOADS.

Buggies, Expresses,

Carts, &c.

are being received by our agents in Maritime Provinces. We are now in a position to fill all orders as fast as received, and would most strongly urge all farmers to see our vehicles before placing orders else-

If no agent in your district

McLaughlin Carriage Co.

Saint John, N. B.

Feeding Flour at a Low Price.

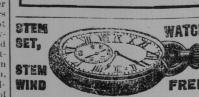

Kangaroo and Champion Turnip Seeds. Yellow Globe, Golden Tankard and Mamnoth Long Red Mangel. Ensilage Corn, Buckwheat and a full line f Field and Garden Seeds. Fresh Stock Cotton Feed Meal. Boper-phosphate in bags and barrels.

JAMES COLLINS, 208 and 210 Union Street, St. John, N. B.

and if you are in the market for fencing we woul-like to have you consider the merits of the "Page" Fence. Coiled Wire, made in our own Wire Mi woven by ourselves. Shipped already to put up The PAGE WIRE FENCE CO. (Ltd.

WALKERVILLE, ONT.

To introduce Dr. Weston's Improved Pink cople, demale weaknesses, liver and kidner disease, nervousness, etc., we give fisease, nervousness, etc., we give FREE dents, nicely engraved, reliable time keeper, warranted 5 years. The Fills are 50c. per box, $3.60 for 8 boxes. Send this amount and you receive 8 boxes and the watch, or write for particulars. This is a genuine offer.

THE DR. WESTON PILL CO.,

"The l'storical novelists, in their search after ma d, have texhausted every age."
"Yes; the present one."—Brooklyn