Passes Away After a Remarkably
Useful Career—The Man Who Fought for a Local Dry Dock.

George Robertson, deputy receiver-general and manager of the Dominion Savings Bank, died at his home, 245 Penrose street, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Although he had been confined to his house since April, yet his death came suddenly in the end. He was up on Thursday and yesterday morning, seemingly as bright and apparently in as good health as he had been during his months of confinement.

GEORGE ROBERTSON

Mr. Robertson was appointed deputy receiver-general and manager of the Dominion Savings Bank in this city in November, 1907, and until his illness he very carefully and successfully attended to the duties of this office.

WEDDINGS

McInerney, Baker.
Rochester, Mass., Oct. 17—A pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's church yesterday. The contracting parties were Joseph Baker and Miss McInerney, a prominent clerk at the Wallace shoe factory, formerly of St. John. At the altar the wedding march, played by Mollie Donohue, was the first of the nuptial music.

SCOTIA APPEALS
HEARD AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—In the supreme court today the argument was continued in the appeal of Bigelow vs. Graham, which was commenced shortly before the court adjourned yesterday. The plaintiff respondent is an apple dealer in Belleville (Ont.). He had an agreement with the defendant, a fruit grower in Wolfville (N. S.), entering into it in October, 1908, the purchase of the latter's crop of apples for as the same would make No. 1 and No. 2. The output amounted to 684 barrels, which were delivered on Nov. 15 at Wolfville, in conformity with the contract. The plaintiff had them shipped to St. John and put in cold storage with some in the warehouse and ordered to be packed to conform to the inspection sales act.

HOPEWELL HILL
AGRICULTURAL FAIR
PRIZE WINNERS

Hopewell Hill, Oct. 19.—The annual exhibition of the Albert Agricultural Society, No. 58, was held here today and was an exceedingly creditable show, especially considering that the season has been an unusually unfavorable one. The cattle show was a fine one. There were about 100 entries and the animals were highly spoken of by the judges.
