London, February 15.— Despatches from Budapest declare that the entire Russian General Staff in Bukowina has been captured. It is reported in the Budapest "Azest," that the staff was surprised in the town of Baudatz, and could not get away. The command ing general, this report says, shot himself, and the other officers surrendered.

A strong offensive movement is being maintained by the Germans in the Valley of the Lauch in Alsace Refugees from that region say that the Germans have massed practically a million men along the Rhine They are advancing slowly through the deep snow the Lauch Valley in two columns, one on each side of the river. Adam's Believes War is No Great Calamity to United States, 85 Per Cent of Whose People Are Being Directly or Indirectly Benefited.

(ADAM'S LETTER.)

New York, Feb. 15.—I remarked a while ago that A. C. Flumerfelt, Esq. February would lay the foundations for a Spring rise in stocks. The lopping off of prices—in some directions—the shifting of commitments, the piling up of money, the covert accumulation of securities by a few forward looking interests-the month's salient features-all tend to bear out the view that before the oses are in bloom Wall Street will have an active advancing market.
