UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL—This well conducted publication, we stre glad to learn, has proved eminently successful. Its contents must prove of great value to the profession in Canada and will prove the treesting in the United States.—American Railway Review, September—3th,

The UPPE CAYADA LAW JOURNAL.—This useful publication for September is before us. We heartily recommend it as a very useful Journal, not only to members of the legal profession, but also to Magnerates, Builds, &c. and in fact every person who usibes to keep blands if posted in law matters. It has been recommended in it outs by the highest legal authorities in this Province but also in the United States and England. The present number is replace with useful information.—Welland Reporter, September 20th, 1860.

UPPER CAYADA LAW JOURNAL -We have received the April number of UPPER CAMADA LAW JOCKASI.—We have received the April reducer of this excellent publication, which is a credit to the publishers and the Prosince. Among a great variety of articles of interest, we especially notative, one on a series on the Constitutional History of Canada, the other upon a decision declaring the right of persons not parties to suits to search the backs of the Clerks of Courts for judgments. The question across out of a request of the Secretary of the Mer antile Protection Association —Montreal Gazette, April, 25th.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, for May. Messes Maclear & Co., King Street, Toronto—In addition to interesting reports of cases recently tried in the several Law Courts and a variety of other important matter, this number contains well-written original articles on Minicipal Law Reform, responsibilities and duties of School Trustees and Teachers, and a continuation of a Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada — Thorold Guzzette May 19th, 1859.

Its contents must prove if great value to the Profession in Canada, and will prive interesting in the United States—Legal Intelligencer, Philadelphia, August 6, 1858.

Upper Canada Law Journal —We have received the first number of the fifth volume of this highly narful Journal, published by Maclear & Co., of Toronto, and edited by the talented Robert A. Harrison, Faq., B.C.L., author of the Common Law Procedure Act, which has obtained classification along with the orlebrated compilers of England and is preferred by the professionals at home to all others.

There is no magistrate, municipal officer, or private gentlemen, whose profession or education wishes the law to be well administered, should be without it. There are knotty points defined with a simplicity that the most ordinary inimis can understand, and the literary gentlemen will find in its pages, a history of the constitution and laws of Canada, from the assumption of British authority. Subscription $4.00 a year, and for the amount of labour and crudition bestowed upon it, it is worth double the amount of labour and crudition bestowed upon it, it is worth double the amount of labour and crudition bestowed upon it. the amount-Victoria Herald, January 19, 1859.

The Law Journal of Upper Canada for January. By Messra. Abdom and Harrison. Machear & Co., Toronto, $4.00 a year cash.

This is one of the best and most successful publications of the day in Canada, and its success prompts the editors to greater exert: n. For instance they promise during the present volume to devote a larger portion of their attention to Municipal Law, at the same time not neglecting the interests of their general subgrubers—British Wing, January 18, 1859.

This is the first number of the Fifth Volume: and the publishers amounce that the terms on which the paper has been turnished to subscribers, will remain unchanged.—viz. $4.00 per annum, if paid before the issue of the March number, and $5.00 if afterwards. Of the utility of the Luw Journal, and the ability with which it is conducted, ample testimony has been afforded by the Bar and the Press of this Province; so it is unnecessary for us to say much in the way of urging its claims upon the liberal partonage of the Canadain public—Thornal Guette, Junuary 27, 1859.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL AND LOCAL COURTS' GAPPITE, is the name of an excellent monthly publication, from the establishment of Bactler & Co. Toronto—It is conducted by W. D. Ardagh and R. A. Harrison, B. C. L. Barriser at Law—Urice $4 per annum.—Othawo Vin-

Law Journal, for November has arrived, and we have with pleasure Law Journal, for November has arrived, and we have with pleasure its invaluable contents. In our humble opinion, the publication of this Journal is an inestimable twon to the legal profession. We are not aware of the extent of its circulation in Brantford; it should be taken, however by every member of the Bar, in town, as well every Majistrate and Municipal Officer. Nor would politicians find it unprofitable, to pursue its highly instructive pages. This journal is admitted by Train-Atlantic writers to be the most ably conducted Journal of the profession in America. The Publishers have our sincere thanks for the present number—

Resent Heard New 18th 1858 Brant Herald, Nov. 16th., 1858.

The Law Journal is beautifully printed on excellent paper, and, in deed, equals in its typographical appearance, the legal record published in the metropolis of the United Kingdom. $4 a year is a very inconsiderable sum for so much valuable information as the Law Journal contalns .- Port Hope Atlas.

Upper Casada Law Journal, Machear & Co. Toronto, January — We have so frequently spoken in the highest terms of the metric of the above periodical that it is scarcely necessary for us to do anything more than a knowledge the recent of the last number. It is almost as essential to Minner and Magistrates as it is to Lawyers — Strafford France All Man 1800. tuer, 4th May, 18a9

THE UPPER CANAL LAW JOERNAL for March—Ry W. D. Ardach and Robt. A. Harrison, Harristers at Law. Madlear & Co., feronto. $4 a year cash.—Above we have joined together for a single notice that may country can produce and happy are we to add, that it appears to be well and deservedly patronised. We have so repetitedly afto led to its merits, that the reader will readily excuse any longer make amplitude of the March March 1860. make mention -- Whig, May, 180: 1859.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL, and Local Courts Guette.

The August number of this stering publication has been at hand ser-eral days. It opens with a well written original paper on "Law Equity and Justlee," which considers the questions so frequently asked by those who have been as they think, infinized in a legal confrovers. — Is Law not Equity I is Equity not Law?" Liability of Corporations, and Liability of Stamboat Proprietors, are next in order and will be found worth a careful persual. A "Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and Ligal Tubunds of Canada," is continued from the July number, it is contribed with ever and should be read to asset on a Constitution. is compiled with care, and should be read by every young Canadian.

The correspondence department is very full this month. There are letters from several Division Court Clerks, asking the options of the Liters from several Division Court Clerks, asking the options of the Liters from points of law with which it is important every (1-rk should be familiar. There are communications to from Justices of the Peace, askitors on points of law with which it is important every certs shound on familiar. There are communications too from Juntices of the Peace, seking information upon a great variety of subjects. All questions are unswered by the Enforce, and a glarice at this department must be sufficient to satisfy every Clerk, Justice of the Peace, Bailiffor Constable that in no way can they invest $4 with so much advantage to themselve a axin paying that amount as a year's subscription to the Law Jurial. The report of the case, 'Region's Cummings,' by Robert A. Harrison, Esq. desided in the Court of Error and Appeal, is very full and of course will receive the curricul attention of the policition. The Reports of Law Courts add greatly to the value of the publication.

The UPPER CARADA LAW JOURNAL, &c
We are indebted to the publishers of this interesting law periodical for the numbers till this sale of the present volume, (vol. 4) commencing with January last. Its pages have been looked over by us with much interest. It is the only legal periodical published in Upper Canada, and is conducted with great ability. Each number contains elaborate original articles on professional audjects, mainly of importance to the bar of Canada, but also entertaining to that of the United States—communications on mooted points and replies thereto, serial instructions to magnitutes and other officers—and numerous declains of the Bission and other Courts of Canada. We welcome it as an excellent exchange—
The Pittslurgh Lygid Journal, Sept. 4th, 1858.

The Low Joerson, for February, has been lying on our table for some time. As usual it is told of valuable information. We are glad to find that the circulation of this very ably conducted publication is on the increase—that it is now found in every Barrister's office of hote, in the hands of Division Court Clerks, Sheriffs and Bailiffs.—Hope Gaule, March 907, 1879.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL for July. Maclear & Co., Toronto. $4 a year —To this useful publication the public are indebted for the only reliable law intelligence. For instance after all the Toronto newspacers have given a garbled account of the legal proceedings in the case of Moses R. Cummings, out comes the Law Journal and speaks the truth viz that the Court of Appeal has ordered a new Trial, the prisoner remaining in custody.—Bratish Whay, July 6, 1868.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL. Toronto: Maclear & Co -The July number of this valuable journal has reached us. As it is the only publication of the kind in the Province, it ought to have an extensive circulation, and should be in the hands of all hustness as well as professional num. The price of subscription is four dollars a year in advance - Spectator, July 7, 1858.

Lipper Canada Law Journal —This highly interesting and useful jour-nal for June has been received. It contains a sax amount, of information. The articles on "The work of Legislation," "Law Reforms of the Sessin," "Historical Sketch of the Constitution, Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada," are well worthy of a careful persual. This work should be found in the office of every merchant and trader in the Province, being in our opinion, of quite as much use to the merchant as the lawyer.—Hamilton Secretair — June 8, 185. Spectator — June 8, 1858, U. C. Law Journal, August 1858 : Toronto Maclear & Co. U. C. Law Journal, August 1858. Toronto Vaclear & Co.

This valuable law serial still maintains its bigh passion. We hope its circulation is increasing. Every Magistrate should patronize it. We are happy to learn from the number before us that Mr. Harrison's "Common Law P. occurre Acts" is highly applied by the English Juriat, a legal authority of considerable weight. He says it is "almost as useful to the English as to the Canadian Lawyer, and is not only the most re-cut, but by far the most complete edition which we (Juriat) have seen of these important acts of parliament."—Colourg Star, August 11th, 1858.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOHNAL.—The August number of the Upper Canada Law Johnson and Local Courts Guette, has just come to band. Like its predecessors, it maintains its high standing as a periodical which should be studied by every lipper Canadian Law Student; and carefully read, and referred to, by every intelligent Canadian who would become acquainted with the laws of his adopted country, and see how these laws are administered in her courts of Justice.—Stratford Examiner, August 12th. 1858. 12th, 1858.
