

RETURN of all SMALL ARMS, ORDNANCE, PROJECTILES, &c., handed over to the Government of the Dominion of Canada, in Free Gift, with the Value of the different Kinds of Stores, within Three Years of the Date on which the Regular Forces were withdrawn.

Total Value of Small Arms, Ordnance, Projectiles, &c. handed over to the Government of the Dominion of Canada, in Free Gift, within three Years of the Date on which the Regular Forces were withdrawn	£. s. d. 79,891 12 - $\frac{3}{4}$
--	---------------------------------------

The Stores have been valued out at the War Office vocabulary price for stores in England; the expense of shipping and packing is calculated at 15 per cent., in addition to the above sum of 79,891 l. 12 s. - $\frac{3}{4}$ d. As many of the stores were of obsolete pattern, and others were becoming so, and their actual condition at the time of issue was unknown, a reduction of 25 per cent. might be allowed, and also the omission of the 15 per cent. before mentioned; this would reduce the value of the supplies herein detailed to 59,918 l. 14 s.

The following arms, which were issued to the Colonial militia some years prior to the withdrawal of the troops, and which, in 1870, it was determined should be given to the Dominion Government, are not included, viz.:

40,670 Snider arms, value	£. 101,167
2,000 Spencer rifles (estimated)	8,000
900 Spencer carbines (estimated)	2,700
TOTAL VALUE	£. 111,867

War Office,
25 January 1873.

John Adye, Brigadier General,
Director of Artillery and Stores.
