Can't kick Dickens out of Christmas

Charles Dickens, the man and his writings, took on a special meaning for the University Women's Club of Port Credit Monday night, Dec. 2, at Riverside Public School.

Madge Withers, mother of club member Shirley Brinkhurst, gave three excellent readings, one each from Nicholas Nickleby, a Christmas story, and Christmas stories. Mrs. Withers is well-qualified to interpret Dickens since she has been an active member of the Dickens Fellowship in England since she was in her

Servicemen's children entertained

PORT CREDIT — A long-awaited and much enjoyed event for children of Army, Navy and Airforce Club members, Lakeview, is the annual Christmas party, held Dec. 20 in the clubrooms at 7 p.m.

It is expected that around 550 children will attend a magic show, a visit from Santa Claus and special refreshments. Santa will have a gift for every child under 12, gifts of the men's unit, and the Ladies' Auxiliary will supply plastic bags of apples, oranges, nuts and candy.

Ambulance corps finds new home

After a long and fruitless search the St. John Ambulance Corps, South Peel Branch, has finally found a home.

The new quarters are located in the basement area of Clark Hall, 161 Lakeshore rd. w. and include permanent storage facilities and an excellent training room.

After completing a very successful year in providing free services throughout every area of South Peel, the corps is setting up its program for the new year. Along with covering events at arenas, mass gatherings and sporting events, they intend to expand the brigade in present areas and hope to become active in Malton.

The volunteer group is preparing for an enlarged brigade and youth corps. The cadet division is open to boys and girls up to 15 years of age and the adult division to persons 16 years and older. Provisions are being made for new and more uniforms.

Anyone interested in the work of the corps can contact Godfrey Coleman at 822-0231 or Stan Dixon, 278-5690.
