

Unitarians will hold Fall Fair

Port Credit Cloverleaf

Ellen Ferris 274-5689

The Unitarian Congregation of South Peel will hold an Old Fashioned Fall Fair Oct. 16 at the Church (South Service Rd. and Highway 10) from 12 noon to 5 p.m. The theme they have chosen is The Great Pumpkin.

There will be a display of antique cars for car lovers and booths include a tea room, books and records, an art display, home baking, used clothing and toys, white elephant, homemade candy and a cake raffle.

For the children there will be punching bags and games of chance and the endless fascination a fair holds for any child. The food lovers have not been forgotten as there will be refreshment booths selling soft drinks, cheese, homemade bread and honey and delicious beef on a bun.

OPEN HOUSE

All parents of students attending Grade 9 at Port Credit Secondary School should plan to attend Get Acquainted Night at the school Oct. 14 from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

The school will hold Open House for all those attending Grade 9 with parents and students exploring the school and seeing all the facilities.

The evening has been divided into two parts, the first of which has the emphasis on the various departments of the school. There will be demonstrations of athletics, art, theatre art, music, french, band and art workshop. During this portion of the evening there will also be discussion groups.

The second part of the evening will be held in the gymnasium, where an informal setting with coffee, the parents will be able to meet the staff. To allow those attending complete freedom, free babysitting will be provided by students at the school.

PAINTING

For the fifth consecutive year art classes have been planned for Trinity Anglican Church, Port Credit. These classes are held Tuesday evening and there are still some vacancies. The size of the classes number 10 to 15 students allowing individual attention. Previous training is not necessary.

Anyone interested can obtain complete information by contacting Mrs. Bess Aubert at 278-9546.

CLOTHING

The South Peel Adult Clothing Centre is again operating this year at Lakeview United Church. This centre offers good used adult clothing at a minimal charge to low income or welfare families. Anyone interested in availing themselves of this service must realize that a referral is necessary and can be obtained from his clergyman or social worker.

The centre is open the first and third Monday of each month from September to June.

WAR MEASURES

At the Unitarian Congregation of South Peel (South Service Road and Hwy. 10) the speaker for Oct. 17 will be lawyer, Aubrey Golden. His topic will be The War Measure Act in Retrospect. The service is at 10:30 with coffee and fellowship following.

AUTUMN COLOR

The Rotary Club of Port Credit today (Wed.) drove senior citizens of Port Credit through the Calendon Hills where they could enjoy the autumn colors. The Rotarians left Port Credit Arena at 12:30 with their guests and afternoon tea was enjoyed at the Terra Cotta Inn.

The senior citizens were welcomed at the Inn by Anna Burns, Gene Gillespie, Helen Mowling and Lorna Munroe.

The members of the Rotary Club who drove were: Dan Avery, chairman of the Community Service Committee, Cliff Armstrong, Roy Gillespie, Ken Hunt, Tom Lockwood, Jim Love, Bill McNay and Jack Van Ecken.

Quiet celebration marked 62nd wedding anniversary

Lakeview

Gwen Clark 278-5715

A quiet family celebration marked the 62nd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick James. The couple were married Oct. 3, 1909 in North Hampshire, England, and have lived at 1322 Alexandra Ave., Mississauga since 1920. Mr. and Mrs. James' three children, Granville, Kenneth, and Eileen (Mrs. James Brooks) and their families visited with their parents on the anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. James have 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. James, a retired CNR employee from the Mimico Yard enjoys spending his time in the seclusion of his home and garden while Mrs. James walks miles almost every day, weather permitting.

Many telegrams and well wishes were received from relatives in England and friends and family in the community.

SALE

A rummage sale will be held at St. Dominic's Hall, Cawthra Road and Atwater Avenue Oct. 23 at 1:30 p.m.

PARENTS

The Lakeview Beach

Public School will hold an Open House today (Wed.) to enable parents to come and see their children in the classroom. Time is from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. and 1:15 to 2:15 p.m. followed by coffee and cookies in the Library after each session.

Nursery services will be provided in the auditorium for those with pre-school children so that parents can devote their full attention to what is taking place in the classroom.

TEACHERS

Meet the Teacher Night will be held at Lakeview Beach Oct. 14 from 7 until 8:30 p.m. Parents will first go to the auditorium where formal introductions will take place and then disperse to visit the individual classrooms and teachers.

Mrs. S. Shearer took her Grade 2 class to the Clyde Brother's Circus which was held at the Canadian National Exhibition Coliseum Oct. 9. This was a thrilling experience for both the children and parents as it provided the fathers or working mothers an opportunity to accompany their children on a school excursion.

WEIGHTY MATTERS

The Call-Me-Lites Group of the T.O.P.S. Club held their weekly meeting Oct. 5 at Allen A. Martin School. Their Queen of the Week was Blanche Fraser while Queen for the month of September was Jackie Vautour.

A Hallowe'en Party is being planned for, to take place Tuesday Oct. 26 at the Burnhamthorpe Community Centre.

The Topsy Turvy Group of the T.O.P.S. Club held their meeting Tuesday evening at Allen A. Martin School. Three women tied for Queen of the Night. They were Katherine Davidson, Anny Ingrund and Ethel Orr.

The Topsy Turvy Group began in 1969 and are pleased to announce their first K.O.P. Elsie Fawcett. KOP is a person who has lost the required amount of weight and has kept it off for a period of three months.

Any teenager who is overweight and would like to reduce is welcome to join.
