lacked in most of the men who passed thru my mind and heart in those days.

This article recalled to me that you distinctly you stood out in my thought in those days, so that after New years, which throw much into obscurity, no image is still well defined. I can remember that I expected that you would take a sturdy place in the front rank of men doing honest work for the advancement of the sum of human good and happiness in the world. I rejoice that this has more than been fulfilled and I congratulate you on the place of opportunity to which
