7. May 81

In reply to the Communication from yourself and the Indians of Gwynnecro, complaining that they are neglected by Mr.
 Christie, the Indian Agent, in the distribution of rations, and that preference is given to the richer members of the Community.
 I have to inform you that Mr.
 Christie has been written to
 for a report on the Complaint made.

I am your obedient servant.
