Miss Moodie
Dear Miss:-

The material for Toronto was shipped you yesterday, the 14th, and I hoped it has been delivered immediately. In the parcel was also 12 doz. of mocassins from Mrs. Moon.

On receipt of your letter of the 11th, Mrs. Moon and Mrs. Nolan were given an order of 100 doz. of mocassins and papoose, respectively.

Miss Foisie has expressed the wish to keep Eunice for a few more days as she had started some work which will likely last until Friday. When she receives her pay she will be told that she is not needed any longer.

The mocassins and the dolls will be sent every week, as requested.

Yours very truly

Indian Agent
