

in that he,

1st Charge

"at Grosse Isle, Quebec, on the 4th May, 1944, when examined as a witness before a Court-Martial, stated on oath that he did not hear any statement made by Gunner J. C. Beamish, the person charged before the Court, concerning the Men's Canteen of First War Disease Control Station, C.A., well knowing such statement to be false.

in that he,

2nd Charge

at Grosse Isle, Quebec, on the 4th May, 1944, when examined as a witness before a Court-Martial, stated on oath that Gunner J. C. Beamish, the person charged before the Court, never told him that he had stolen goods from the Men's Canteen of First War Disease Control Station, C.A., well knowing such statement to be false."