

10.03 This Agreement and Schedules "A", "B" and "C" may be changed at any time if the participating countries concur. Any change in the main body of the Agreement must be made in a supplementary agreement. However, changes in the schedules may be made through an exchange of letters between Dahomey, Upper Volta, Mali, Niger, Senegal and Canada. This Agreement and the schedules cannot be changed without the unanimous consent of the parties to the Agreement.

10.04 Disputes that may arise regarding the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement or any supplementary agreement shall be settled by negotiations between the parties or in any other manner approved by them.

10.05 This Agreement shall enter into force January 1, 1976.
