

Dave Beland, the trainer of the Quebec club, is a widely known athlete, especially on the cinder path, and has been Quebec's best sprinter for years; he was a member of the Canadian Olympic team which took part in the Olympic games in London a few years ago. Dave has also played with different Quebec clubs. He is a hard worker in the dressing room and an enthusiast, which goes a long way towards winning matches.