WE have endeavoured in the following pages to present as accurate, comprehensive, and readable an account of Canadian Life in Town and Country as the limitations of the book would permit. For any unintentional inaccuracies or omissions in the text we beg the reader's indulgence.

We gladly avail ourselves of this opportunity of acknowledging our indebtedness, both in the supply of material for the book, and in the overseeing of certain of the proofs, to many friends here and elsewhere in Canada; and especially to Mr. Justice Girouard, of the Supreme Court of Canada; Mr. John Reade, M.A., literary editor of the Montreal Gazette; Mr. E. T. D. Chambers, of Quebec, the leading authority on Canadian sports; Lord Aylmer, Inspector-General of the Canadian Militia; Mr. Hayter Reed, of Quebec; Captain E. T. D. Morrison, D.S.O., editor of the Ottawa Citizen; and Mr. R. H. Cowley, M.A., Inspector of Public Schools for the County of Carleton.
